LINDSEY HOPKINS AIDS RAIL FIGHT

Richmond, Va., March 7.—(AP)—Declaring that the proposed Chesapeake & Ohio stock ownership of the Erie and Pere Marquette railroads involves the realization of a goal—the merger of the C. & O. with other roads now controlled by the Nickel Plate company—that already has been held by the interstate commerce commission not to be in the public interest, the Chesapeake & Ohio minority stockholders' protective committee today made public a lengthy letter addressed to stockholders of that railroad.

The letter bears the signatures of George S. Kemp, chairman; Granville G. Valentine, J. Luther Moon, Berkeley Williams, all of Richmond, and Lindsey Hopkins, of Atlanta.

"Any proposal having this result, in the opinion of this committee is legally and morally unsound, and should never be approved by any governmental agency," says the statement.

The acquisition of stock control of Erie and Pere Marquette by your company at the prices paid for shares already acquired, and at the prices proposed to be paid in exercising the so-called options from O. P. Van Sweringen, and the Nickel Plate, or in the present market, involves the payment of prices greatly in excess of the fair value of the stocks proposed to be acquired," it is asserted.

"The purchase of such additional shares of Pere Marquette stock in the prevailing market necessary to acquire the proposed control by your company will necessarily involve the payment of artificial and highly excessive prices that do not, in the opinion of this committee, represent either present or potential property values," the statement says.

The statement declares that the proposal to acquire stock control of the Erie and Pere Marquette is a revival, in substance though not in form, of the former plan of O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen to create a new and fourth system in eastern trunk line territory which the interstate commerce commission disapproved in its opinion of March 2, 1926.

GEORGIA PRIMARY IS NOT AFFECTED

restrictions refer in any way to race. These qualifications must be met before a voter can have his name placed on the voters' or registration list.

"The Neil primary law merely lays down rules under which any party may hold a primary in the state. It is a primary law and not a democratic, nor a white primary law. Any party in Georgia desiring to hold a primary may do so under the act of 1917. Any voter qualifying or getting his name placed on the registration list is entitled to vote, provided he qualifies for the primary to be held."

"The Neil law does not seek to say who shall vote. There is no mention of any race in either the Georgia election law or the Neil primary law," said Neil, "and therefore I do not consider that this state is affected at all by the decision of the supreme court in the Texas case."

SUPREME COURT VOIDS TEXAS LAW.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, March 7.—(United News)—The United States supreme court has thrown out the Texas primary laws which specifically excluded negroes but southern states are left free to continue white control by indirect means now widely employed. Many of these indirect laws have been upheld in previous decisions of the court.

This decision is also important because in it the court tends to regard a primary as of the same importance as an election. Senator Borah, Idaho republican, said the supreme court indicated support of his contention that congress has power over primaries as well as regular elections.

This point is highly important now because the senate's right to investigate the Vane and Smith primary election contributions hangs on the senate's authority to go into primaries. Its right has been challenged by those opposing the investigation but it went ahead nevertheless. A specific test of the point in the courts may result.

The Texas law, passed in 1923, expressly prohibited negroes from voting in the democratic primary which is the real election in most southern states where the republican party scarcely exists. The supreme court held that this restriction was a violation of the 15th amendment which forbids states from passing any law abridging the rights of citizens on account of race or color and that this was sufficient to invalidate it regardless of other points raised.

Exclusion of negroes from the polls has been regarded by the south ever since reconstruction days as necessary since negroes outnumber whites in many of those states. This has been accomplished by indirect means which do not theoretically discriminate against negroes but do practically. Educational tests, ability to explain state constitutions, intricate registration requirements, property qualifications, poll taxes, inconvenient voting hours, and sub rosa surveillance are the most effective devices used. There is nothing in the Texas decision to prevent their continued use. When advised of this decision,

Governor Moody, of Texas, indicated that the end sought would now be attempted by such indirect means.

This problem of preventing negro political domination in the south figured conspicuously in the senate debate last week when the Reed resolution to investigate senatorial primaries was up. Opposing further interference by the senate in the Pennsylvania republican primaries, Senator Reed, Pennsylvania republican, did not also investigate disfranchisement of negroes in the south.

Reed said that last fall there were no elections held in 14 Texas counties with 100,000 population. He said Montgomery, Ala., with a population of 43,000, almost half negroes, cast 14 republican votes in the last senatorial election. South Carolina elected a senator last fall with less than one per cent of the state's population. Reed said. He recited similar results in other southern states.

Senator Hefflin, Alabama, explained that his state had an educational qualification and a poll tax. Negroes refused to pay the poll tax in order to vote. In some southern states this tax must be paid long in advance of registration and negroes are all the more indifferent to the franchise under such circumstances.

Mississippi's position was explained by one of her senators, Stephens: "In Mississippi we democrats say that we do not want anybody to belong to the democratic party down there unless they are white men. And I say we have the right, no matter how you want to look at it, whether from a moral or a legal standpoint, or otherwise, to select our own companions, our own associates, our own party mates, and we do it. We say to the negroes if you want to hold a primary and nominate your candidates, you can have the same machinery that the white people have."

Senator Blease, South Carolina, was equally emphatic: "We have plenty of ballot boxes in South Carolina in our primary election where nobody is permitted to vote but white people, where one candidate receives every vote. We keep the colored man in South Carolina from voting by our constitution. We do not allow him to vote in the democratic white primaries, and we never expect to let him vote in them, no matter what may be done here."

Republicans have repeatedly threatened to investigate the whole question of southern negro voting but each time the subject is brought up democrats retort with a demand that republican politics in those states be investigated at the same time, and the matter is always dropped by mutual consent. Democrats always charge that the republican party in the south is composed chiefly of negroes holding federal jobs and that their chief political activity is attending national conventions to vote for presidential candidates.

SUPREME COURT RULES ON VOTE.

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—The constitutional guarantee giving negroes the right to vote applies to primaries as well as general elections, in the opinion of the supreme court.

Overthrowing a Texas statute under which negroes are prohibited from voting in democratic primaries, the court found today that even though the primary is not mentioned in the federal constitution, federal jurisdiction is sufficient to bar the states from making primary laws out of harmony with the constitutional guarantee of equal rights for the races.

"States may do a good deal of classifying that it is difficult to believe rational," said the court in a unanimous opinion. "but there are limits, and it is too clear for extended argument that color cannot be made the basis of a statutory classification affecting the right set up in this case."

Deciding a case from Texas, the court held that the states are restricted in their jurisdiction over the primary, and cannot bar voters from the polls on account of color or race.

Justice Holmes delivered the opinion, and no dissent was announced. Negroes denied the right to vote in a primary on account of color, he said, had ground for damages, since the constitution guarantees the negro equal rights.

The Texas law prohibiting negroes from voting in the democratic primaries was therefore declared void and unconstitutional.

The court said it was not even necessary to take into account the 15th amendment, which gives negroes the right to vote, because the injustice of the Texas statute was sufficiently apparent when considered merely in the light of the 14th amendment, which prohibited the states from making any law to abridge the rights of citizens on account of race or color.

"The statute of Texas assumes to forbid negroes to take part in a primary election, the importance of which we have indicated, discriminating against them by the distinction of color alone," said the opinion.

"The objection that the subject matter of the suit is political is more than a play upon words."

ALABAMA PRIMARY NOT AFFECTED.

Montgomery, Ala., March 7.—(AP)—Alabama primaries will not be affected by the United States supreme court decision in the Texas case, according to Edmund W. Pettus, of Selma, Ala., chairman of the Alabama democratic executive committee. The Alabama election laws only fix qualifications governing general elections and provides that the governing authority of each political party may fix qualifications governing its membership.

Democratic and republican primaries are held in Alabama under rules and regulations laid down by the governing authorities of each organization, limited by certain statutes as are deemed necessary to prevent fraud and corruption, Mr. Pettus said.

PENSIONS' DELAY IS HELD CERTAIN

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—After carefully assessing the effect of the senate's failure to act on the deficiency appropriation bill, interior department officials have concluded that there is no way to furnish funds in the face of an expected deficit, for payment in May and June of Mexican, Civil, Indian and Spanish war veterans, or to make remittances to about 20 widows of veterans of the war of 1812.

It is the intention of the department, however, to make the payments for the two months as soon as funds for the next fiscal year become available July 1.

The May and June payments involving all pensioners would have required an appropriation of $37,200,000. The bill's failure affects in addition to the widows of the war of 1812 pension lists, 1,000 widows and seven veterans of the Mexican war, approximately 390,000 civil war, 250,000 Spanish war, which includes the

How Controlled Baking Brings Out the Flavor--

Good bread must have good ingredients. But good ingredients demand good baking.

In Bamby bread the finest ingredients have always been used—pure creamery butter for shortening, rich milk, and the finest hard wheat flour.

Uniform Quality Guaranteed

We guarantee that every loaf of Bamby bread is baked in our new, gas-fired, heat controlled ovens. Because of the scientific features of this oven, we guarantee every loaf to be exactly the same in quality at all times.

Now, in order to give Atlanta a still better loaf of bread, we have installed new-type, gas-fired, heat controlled ovens—the last word in baking science! Every bit of the fine flavor of Bamby ingredients is now imparted to the loaf. And every loaf is baked exactly alike!

Know the wonderful flavor of evenly baked Bamby bread. Compare it with bread baked in old style ovens. You will see that Bamby is a fine achievement in bread baking as well as in the making.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF ATLANTA

We are all interested in having clean homes with a minimum of labor and expense--also clean city air for our children to breathe. May we suggest and urge, then, that you follow these simple rules--and thereby cooperate with us in making Atlanta the cleanest city in the South as well as the finest;

1. If you prefer to burn coal, please at least consult the City Smoke Inspector, City Hall and learn how to burn it scientifically--with as little smoke, soot and grime as possible; or

Burn a good grade of coke--and you will have no smoke nor soot. As stated in U. S. Bureau of Mines' Technical Paper No. 242, "Coke is a smokeless and clean fuel and offers the best means of making our large cities smokeless. It is known that in large cities where soft coal is burned for domestic heating about 60% of all smoke in the atmosphere is made in the residential section in house-heating furnaces. Substituting coke for soft coal will eliminate this 60% of smoke. The smoke made in house-heating furnaces is much more objectionable than the smoke made in industrial plants because it is made in the residence section where it does the most harm."

For information and instructions for burning coke, call for a copy of the above booklet at the office of the City Smoke Inspector. Yours for a cleaner Atlanta.

Neufield Jones Must Post Bond of $5,000 in Evasion of Income Tax To Be Freed

Commutation of Terms of Jones Brothers Brings to Light Further Charges.

Neufield T. Jones, of Baltimore, whose two-year sentence in the Atlanta federal penitentiary on prohibition charges was commuted Monday by President Coolidge, together with a similar term of his brother, Winfield Jones, will have to post $5,000 bond on charges of evading payment of income tax before he is free again, the United States marshal's office announced Monday.

Release of the Jones brothers from the federal prison will occur probably tonight upon arrival of dispatches from Washington to Warden John W. Snook. It is believed that Neufield Jones will be able to post the bond necessary for his release, it was said.

Neufield Jones and his brother, Winfield, were found guilty on September 24, 1925, by a Baltimore federal jury on charges of conspiracy to illegally use alcohol obtained by the Maryland Drug and Chemical company on federal permit, following a raid on drug company offices.

United States deputy marshals said Monday that they have a warrant against Neufield Jones for evading income tax payments and that he will have to post bond before he can be released. In event of failure to post the necessary bond, he will be sent to Fulton tower in the custody of deputy marshals upon release from the federal prison, it was stated.

The Jones brothers testified at the trial that, as investigators of the department of justice, they purchased controlling interests in the Maryland Drug and Chemical company for the purpose of penetrating inner circles of a bootleg ring and tracing illegal use of government alcohol withdrawal permits. The government contended that they used their positions as federal agents to obtain permits for large withdrawals of alcohol, themselves releasing it to the bootleg trade.

Department of justice officials denied the assertion of the Jones brothers that their activities in the Maryland Drug and Chemical company were known to and carried on with the permission of their superiors.

GEORGIA SHERIFF HELD IN WHIPPING

Investigation that has been carried on in the county since the night the editor was flogged. The men were ordered held under $3,000 bond. Editor Flanders who is still confined to his bed as a result of the flogging, had no comment to make when he was informed that the men were arrested. According to the editor's wife, Mr. Flanders is in no condition to make a statement.

dition to make a statement. He is still in a highly nervous state and has been suffering intense pain as a result of the whipping.

Mr. Flanders was flogged, it is claimed by three men just after dark, the night of February 25, because of his activities against lawlessness and the bootleggers in Treutlen county. The editor had been in Swainsboro that day and, while returning, noticed a car trailing him as he passed through Norristown in Treutlen county but paid no further attention to it or the occupants, except to notice that it kept about 100 yards behind for a number of miles.

While he was approaching a bridge spanning a creek about six miles from Norristown, the car sped past Mr. Flanders and stopped on the bridge preventing him from crossing. The editor called to the men and asked if they would move the car and the men replied, "Like hell, we will."

The editor made no reply and three men with hoods covering their faces came up to Mr. Flanders, who remained in his car, and jerked him bodily to the ground.

"You will write in that paper of yours, will you," one of the masked men said to him, and with a blow with his fist, struck Mr. Flanders, who fell, a small, man weighing hardly 100 pounds. The blow landed at the temple and Flanders fell to the ground, senseless.

Fell Unconscious. How long he remained unconscious or with what the man used to beat him, Mr. Flanders was unable to state, for when he recovered consciousness, the floggers had gone and he was a mass of blood. He regained his automobile and made his way to Soperton, where he again fell unconscious before he could tell what had happened. He was carried to his home and has been in a critical state ever since.

As soon as it became known in the city what had happened, the editor made identifications that resulted in the arrests today, it was ascertained. Rewards totaling over $2,500 have been offered for the apprehension and conviction of the men. Governor Walker has offered $1,000; the city of Soperton has offered $500, the county has offered $500 and the citizens of the town have offered $500.

When arrested the sheriff and the other three men refused to make any statement.

Carried to Emanuel. Sheriff G. F. Flanders, of Emanuel county, who made the arrest of Sheriff Thigpen and the other three men brought the men to the Emanuel county jail tonight when they were unable to make the required bond.

The arrest of the men is due to the efforts of Sheriff Flanders and to the untiring search that he has made for the men who whipped the editor, Mr. Flanders is a cousin to the Emanuel county sheriff.

chief of a department, the chief shall be retired as an active consultant with full use of the hospital and the right to hold clinics.

Under the original proposal, the executive committee would have been elected by the staff with all associates casting a ballot. The executive body nominates department heads, and it was held that the associates would name an executive committee which would select the chiefs, elect young and inexperienced doctors to important and responsible posts and throw the entire operation of the hospital into the hands of "barbarians."

Chiefs at the end of 10 years' service also would have been retired without the specified right to hold clinics or without the title of "active" consultant, under the original plan.

GAS PRICES CUT IN MANY STATES

Birmingham, Ala., March 7.—(AP)—A two-cent reduction in gasoline prices effective tomorrow was announced today by the Wofford, Sinclair and Standard Oil companies. Others are expected to follow suit, it was said. The new price of 23 cents per gallon includes a four-cent state tax.

CRUDE OIL PRICES CUT IN CENTRAL WEST. Findlay, Ohio, March 7.—(AP)—The Ohio Oil company today announced reductions in prices of Central West, Wyoming and New Mexico crudes, ranging from 15 to 20 cents a barrel.

New Central West prices are: Lima, $1.84; Indiana, $1.61; Illinois and Princeton, $1.73; Wooster, $1.90; Western Kentucky, $1.46.

New Wyoming crude prices are: Elk basin, $1.55; Grass Creek light, $1.55; Big Muddy, $1.42; Lance Creek, $1.53; Rock Creek, $1.42; Artesia, New Mexico, $1.20.

SIX GRADES CUT IN WYOMING.

Wyoming, March 7.—(AP)—The Ohio Oil company today announced reduction of 20 cents a barrel in six grades of Rocky Mountain region crude oil. The Mid-West Refining company announced similar reductions in several of the same grades.

NO NEWS RECEIVED OF PRICE ADVANCE.

Although an increase of 1 cent per gallon on the tank wagon and service station price of gasoline was announced at the New York offices of the Sinclair and Pur-A-Mo companies, effective today in Georgia and Florida, officials of the two companies in Atlanta had received no notice of the proposed change late Monday afternoon.

No instructions regarding price advances had been issued from headquarters to the local office, they stated.

SHOE RETAILERS MEET IN MACON

Macon, Ga., March 7.—(AP)—With over 500 delegates in attendance, the annual convention of the Southeastern Shoe Retailers' association opened here today. A. G. Why Children Need Breakfasts that "Stand By"

80% of the Day's Important School Work Falls in 4 Morning Hours, Noted Educator Reveals

ARE you letting listless mornings, brought on largely by wrong breakfasts, handicap your child's school work?

Recent investigations, conducted in over 2,000 American schools and colleges, reveal 80% of the so-called "hard" studies as falling in the morning. This percentage is confirmed by Prof. Willard, of Northwestern University, and other leading educators.

Thus, Quaker Oats breakfasts, providing the excellent food balance of protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and the "bulk" to make laxatives seldom needed are being urged as a duty of parents in protecting their children's most important working hours. No other cereal grown compares in food balance.

Serve every morning. Their rich Quaker flavor makes them savory and enticing... delicious breakfasts that "stand by" you. Get either Quick Quaker, which cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes, or regular Quaker Oats today at your grocer's.

A. president, are co-chairmen for the Kirkwood home. The home, which will be known as No. 2, is to be built by W. H. Hood, of Hood Realty company, of face brick, and will follow out the latest and most approved plans for a medium-priced home bungalow. Visitors are invited to inspect the building from time to time, as the aim is to help home lovers build and own their own homes, it is said.

ACCIDENT PREVENTION COMMITTEE MEETS

Members of the accident prevention committee, southeastern division of the National Electric association, held a one-day business session at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel Monday. R. D. Haskins, of Chattanooga, Tenn., chairman of the committee, presided at the gathering.

Devitt To Be "Ring Master" HEARING TODAY Of Big All-Theater Revue IN GORE APPEAL

BY PAUL STEVENSON.
With actors of international fame, musicians and artists, scenic designers and entertainers galore coming from all Atlanta theaters and from attractions playing these theaters, all joining in one monster show Friday night at the city auditorium, Atlanta will enjoy for the first time at least a real metropolitan "Bohemian Night." As plans are developed from day to day the direction of the cooperating theater managements. Twenty big acts selected from the best professional talent playing Atlanta this week will bring enough amusement to keep the people occupied for more than two hours and a half and will, incidentally, bring together the ablest collection of actors and performers ever gathered in one theater in the city.

ALAN DEVITT

One of the features of the program will be the work of Alan Devitt, who will serve as master of ceremonies at the big show and will be the ring-master of the whole program. He will be assisted in his impromptu presiding by such masters as Joe Morris, comedian from Loew's Grand, and Benny Rubin, star funmaker from Keith's Georgia.

The 20 big acts will be given with clock-like precision. The master of ceremonies will blow his whistle at 11 o'clock Friday night and from then on fun will reign throughout the entire show. Five acts from Loew's Grand, five from Keith's Georgia, three special acts by the Forsyth Players, three acts by the "Blossom Time" company including one big special number by the Metropolitan, special acts from the Metropolitan, Kialto, Cameo and Tudor theaters and some of the best things from the Howard program, including the beautiful production "Moonlight," by Paul Ockard, will be included on the program. Any person who knows anything at all about theater knows that this array of talent will give the greatest dollar show ever seen in the south.

Peach Belt Bus Carries Letter To Macon Mayor

Service on the new Peach Belt line from Atlanta to Macon was formally opened at 1 o'clock Monday when Mayor I. N. Ragsdale's letter to Mayor Wallace Miller, of Macon, started on its way at the Atlanta Terminal of the company, 148 Peachtree street. The following letter was handed to T. E. Taylor, special representative of the Peach Belt line, by A. E. Wickman, general manager for personal delivery to Mayor Miller:

"Hon. Wallace Miller, mayor of the city of Macon.
Dear Sir: Today, with the formal opening of the Peach Belt line, another link is forged in the chain binding Macon and Atlanta closer together.
This letter is to be carried on the first official trip made by one of these buses from Atlanta to Macon.
In conveying to you my personal regards and esteem, I at the same time, wish this new transportation company the best of success.
(Signed) "I. N. RAGSDALE."
(Mayor of Atlanta.)

More than 600 rioters were killed or wounded in Lisbon while from the decks of the liner just off shore 900 American passengers followed the fighting. Nine Georgians were included in the passenger list of the Transylvania. They are George G. Walsh, 52 Westminster drive; Holmes D. Jordan, 901 Argonne avenue; Lloyd B. Hatcher, of Peachtree circle; George M. McMillan, 788 Piedmont avenue, all of Atlanta; Frank G. Lumpkin, Columbus; W. R. Evans, of Dawson; Sara V. Sibley, of Marietta, and the Woodwards.

Roy D. Warren, commissioner from the tenth, will insist that the board take steps to provide an audit of 1926 accounts of the board and bear the expense itself. The citizens committee has asked that such an audit be furnished and Mr. Warren will take the position that the board should provide it.

ATLANTANS SEE LISBON RIOTING FROM LINER'S DECK

From the decks of the S. S. Transylvania in the Lisbon harbor, Colonel J. C. Woodward, head of the Georgia Military academy, and Mrs. Woodward, who are making a trip around the world, witnessed a day's street fighting in the Portuguese capital during the course of which many hundreds of persons were shot down, according to recent letters received from them by G. M. A. officials.

ROAD BOND ISSUE TO BE PUSHED BY HIGHWAY BODY

Macon, Ga., March 7. (P)—Plans for the promotion of the purposes of the Georgia Highway association will be considered here Thursday, March 10, at a meeting of the association's vice presidents. Each of these officers represents a congressional district in the state.
The main purpose of the association, it is said, is nonpolitical and is to impress upon the people the importance of having the legislature adopt a program of state-wide permanent road paving and to submit to the people a state bond issue sufficient to supply the money for doing the work.
Following the meeting of the vice presidents this week, a general meeting of county chairmen will be called so that the plan may be started through them, it was said. Appointments of these chairmen was made by the vice presidents of the association.

CITY EMPLOYEES MEET TO DISCUSS NEW CHARTER PLAN

Discussion of the new city charter will feature a joint meeting of firemen and police unions and the city and county public service employees' unions, to be held March 25 in the Labor temple.
Decision to hold the joint session was the outgrowth of the meeting of representatives of the unions Saturday night, when certain provision in the new charter were characterized as objectionable to wage earners of the city and county.
Other business acted upon by representatives was in connection with establishment of a death benefit fund for members of the unions, and to indorse a special tax levy of the Atlanta Federation of Trades for financing Labor day celebrations, and a report by C. Minihugh, attorney, on progress of the drafting of a pension bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature.

MILTON AVENUE CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT

Members of the Milton Avenue Community club will hold their next monthly meeting tonight at the Atlanta Harness and Reed company building, 268 McDonough boulevard. Improvements for the Milton avenue section will be taken up.

PROPERTY LEASED BY GOVERNMENT BRINGS $260,000

Sale of the property used by the government for postoffice substation "B" and the garage at Forsyth and Garnett streets, by M. L. Thruway to the Postal Building corporation, of St. Louis, for $260,000, was announced Monday. A new lease for ten years will be signed by the government as soon as necessary repairs are made, the present lease expiring in the near future, it was stated.

Contract for a new substation at Lee and Gordon streets was let Monday by the government to Mrs. Mildred Webb. The new building, measuring double the space furnished in the present substation, will be ready for occupancy June 1, the ten-year lease to date from that day.

WOMAN FINED $150 ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Mrs. J. G. Oglesby, of 201 Argonne drive, pleaded guilty Monday morning in United States district court to charges of possessing and selling one pint of whisky and was given a fine of $150, with the alternative of 40 days in jail. She paid the fine.

BLYTH, WITTER & CO. OPENS OFFICES HERE

Southern headquarters of Blyth, Witter & Co., international investment banking concern, have been established in Atlanta and will be formally opened today. The move was declared to be indicative of the importance of the south's development in the eyes of large financial interests. The firm of Blyth, Witter & Co. deals exclusively in government, municipal and corporation securities, with offices in New York, London, Chicago, Boston, Atlanta, New Orleans, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle and Portland. Sales organizations are maintained in each of these cities with the exception of the London office, which is maintained primarily for the purpose of critically examining foreign business before assuming the responsibility for it. Direct wires will be installed here, thus putting the Atlanta office in immediate touch with all other offices of the company and the markets of the world, as well.

In an interview, Calvin C. Chapman, vice president and resident partner of the firm, states that for two years or more, Blyth, Witter & Co. considered opening offices in the south and during this period careful and extensive investigations were made, with convincing results.
"We expect in the south," says Mr. Chapman, "a greater increase in wealth and industrial development in the next ten years than in any previous similar period, and plan to be of material assistance in bringing this about. Both Mr. Evans and I already have purchased homes in Atlanta, and are prepared to become part of the community. We are more than pleased with the readiness of Atlantans to cooperate with us and with the delightfully cordial manner in which we have been received."

E. J. Evans, sales manager, has been connected with Blyth, Witter & Co. on the Pacific coast for a number of years, and is equally impressed with the advantages of being here.
R. H. Organ, who also has been connected with the firm for a number of years, will be in charge of cashier and accounting departments. New offices are located on the second floor of the Grant building.

KENTUCKIANS NAMED TO COAL CONFERENCE

Those appointed were: Winston Conley, Pikeville; C. J. Neekamp, Ashland; Joe Johnson, Lexington; R. Russ Hill, Middlesboro; C. F. Richardson, Sturgis; W. G. Duncan, Greenville; E. R. Clayton, Harlan, and R. E. Howe, Knoxville, Tenn.

FREE to Mothers Send coupon for 10-Day Tube

Mother! Watch out for film on child's teeth.

That's a danger signal. If the dentifrice you are using doesn't successfully remove it, do this—the new tooth care children's dentists advise.

FOREMOST dental authorities now advise a new way in caring for a child's teeth. A way different in formula, action and effect from any other method.

As a nation-wide hygienic movement, a 10-day test is offered mothers free.

You are urged to make it. To see what modern science is doing for the better protection of children's teeth and gums. Simply use the coupon.

What film indicates. Why it must be sought several times daily. Look at your child's teeth. If cloudy, dull, discolored, there's a film. And that film is often a danger sign. The child can feel it by running his tongue across his teeth.

Ordinary tooth pastes won't combat it successfully. Try the one you now use. See if the film does not still remain.

Film is a viscous coat that clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It makes teeth ugly, discolored—dingy. Many a naturally pretty child is handicapped in this way.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs by millions breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea and gum troubles.

New way removes it. And Firms the Gums

Now modern science has found a safe way to combat film. Super-gritty substances are judged dangerous to the teeth. Soap and chalk methods are inadequate.

This new method, embodied in the tooth paste called Pepsodent, provides the scientifically proved combatant that is being adopted by the people of some 50 nations. Its action is to curdle the film, then harmlessly to remove it.

Test Tube Free
Don't you think it worth while, in justice to your children, and in fairness to yourself, to try it for ten days? The test will cost you nothing. Use the coupon for a 10-day tube, free.

Central of Georgia Railway Discusses Railroad Earnings

There are three classes of people directly interested in railroad earnings. First: the public which pays freight and passenger rates and which depends upon the railroads to furnish prompt and efficient service; second: the employees who support themselves and their families from the wages paid by the railroads; third: the investors who own the railroads.

The only railroad "problem" is to maintain justice between these, and the outstanding achievement of railroad operation during recent years is, not the increase in earnings, but the progress made for the benefit of these three groups.

In 1926 the shipping and traveling public receive the best and most efficient service in railroad history.

The railroad payroll is the largest single item of expense. Employees shared in the earnings of the carriers because they received more wages in 1926 than they did in 1925, or in any previous year.

The stockholder or the bondholder who invests his money in railroad securities is entitled to receive a fair return on his investment. It is important to the public that he receive this, otherwise capital will shun railway investments. American railways spent eight hundred and seventy-five million dollars for the improvement of equipment and plant last year. By these improvements the public benefits through the higher standards of service and the employee benefits in improved working conditions.

The statement is frequently, although erroneously, made that there is a "guarantee" of a fixed return made to the railways by the government. Records show that the net earnings of Class 1 railways of the country were the following percentage of the value of their property for the past six years:

1922—3.61%
1923—4.48%
1924—4.33%
1925—4.83%
1926—5.13%

The average for the six years is 4.22 per cent.

That is to say, under the rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the railways did not earn in 1926, or in any of the five preceding years, the rate prescribed by the Commission as a fair return, 5.75 per cent. Instead, the railways fell short by hundreds of millions of dollars of reaching this rate, and the government did not, and will not, make up any portion of this deficit.

Under the law the selling of transportation is not put on the same basis as the selling of other commodities. Other industries fix their own prices for what they sell, and hence can make money without limit in good times, thus storing up a surplus to tide them over periods of depression. The charges for railroad transportation are fixed by law, and the law likewise limits the return which a railroad may earn, prohibiting the railroads from earning more than what the Interstate Commerce Commission terms a "fair rate of return." Under what is known as the "recapture clause" of the law, if a carrier happens in any year to earn more than six per cent, one half of the excess is to be paid over to the government to make up a fund to be used by the government in aiding, through loans or otherwise, the weaker railroads.

Because of the progress of the past six years, the railway investor now finds his property in stronger and sounder condition. The railway employee finds his condition improved. The public is securing better service. All of these things have been accomplished without a "guarantee" of earnings but through efficiency and economy of management, loyalty and intelligence of employees, and cooperation and understanding of the public.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

President, Central of Georgia Railway Company.

Pimples, Boils, Skin Eruptions

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system. This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S. You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S., which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

S.S.S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.
S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.—(adv.)

SASSER ON STAND IN BANK TRIALS

Several weeks of direct examination of witnesses conducted by the government in the trial of J. A. Sasser, P. J. Baker, John D. Russell and L. R. Adams, officials of the defunct Bankers' Trust company, in United States district court on mail fraud charges, came to a close Monday morning when defense attorneys took up examination with Sasser as the first of the defense witnesses to go on the stand.

Quick, Pleasant Way to Get Rid of Constipation

Discovery of Distinguished Chemist Said to Be Greatest Medical Find of the Age.

When you notice that your tongue is becoming coated, your breath heavy or feverish, your skin sallow, your mind and body sluggish, when you suffer frequently with bilious headaches, you should promptly correct the cause, which is a torpid liver and inactive bowels, but beware of strong purgatives that goad the liver and merely cause a "chemical" evacuation, leaving the system weak and rundown.

You will get much quicker and more pleasant and lasting relief by flushing the liver and bowels with Alertox, the recent discovery of a distinguished chemist. Alertox is a liquid saline solution of well known mineral salts, dominated by sulphate of magnesium, which causes a physical (natural) evacuation of the entire intestinal tract, at the same time neutralizing the acidity and fortifying the system.

Alertox is pleasant to take, non-irritating, non-absorbent and will not sicken or nauseate. 25c and 60c sizes at any drug store. If your druggist cannot supply Alertox, direct from upon receipt of price. Crystal Carbonic Laboratory, Desk 6, Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

When he was led to believe the paper was well secured.

Mr. Sasser admitted receiving one of the letters alleged to have been addressed by W. D. Manley, president of the defunct Bankers' Trust company, to him from Tate Springs, Ga., but denied having received the other. The letter he admitted receiving asked Mr. Sasser to withhold all dividends from stockholders in order that the stock might be bought up by the defunct Bankers' Trust company.

The other letter, which Mr. Sasser said he did not receive, suggested that certain funds in the depositors' guarantee fund be taken from other banks and placed on deposit with the Bankers' Trust company.

Mr. Sasser said that he signed a $25,000 check on the depositors' guarantee fund as trustee shortly before the collapse of the Bankers' Trust company under the impression that the money was to be used to prevent the failure of the Bank of America.

INTRASTATE BRICK RATES DECISION WILL BE DEFENDED

The Georgia public service commission will defend its intrastate rates on brick which would be radically changed under an order issued by the interstate commerce commission, according to Walter R. McDonald, member of the commission.

Under the order, the federal commission's order was issued in the case known as I and S docket 1885, and in this order the rate on interstate movements of common brick carries a 20 per cent increase over the rate for a distance of more than 150 miles. As there are many intrastate shipments of more than 150 miles, the state commission will seek to have its intrastate rate under these conditions preserved, according to Mr. McDonald.

In explaining the effect of the rate on shipments of common brick in Georgia, Mr. McDonald said: "Intrastate rates on brick within the state of Georgia, as authorized by the Georgia commission, as well as the rates in the other two states named, differs from the order of the interstate commerce commission as a result of its general investigation into rates on brick in the case known as I and S docket 1885, in that the rate on common brick is made 20 per cent lower than other classes of brick for all distances, while this difference in rate is stopped at 150 miles under the federal commission's order, and those common bricks moving for distances beyond 150 miles are forced to bear a 20 per cent cost in transportation cost, and it is this difference that has made necessary the hearings just concluded."

"The Georgia commission will vigorously defend its intrastate rates, taking the position that common brick is a commodity which naturally moves in this territory for distances beyond 150 miles, and that there is no transportation reason why this commodity should not move for such distances, and that a rate adjustment which undertakes to confine the movement within 150 miles is without justification, economically, commercially, or otherwise."

SUPREME COURT WILL PAY TRIBUTE TO JUDGE FISH

Turning aside from all legal problems awaiting solution, the Georgia supreme court today will do honor to the memory of its former colleague, the late William H. Fish, of Macon.

Memorial services will be held at the supreme court room in the capitol, beginning at 11 o'clock. At that time the report of the Fish memorial committee will be made and response will be given by a member designated by the court. Exercises will be open to the public. Judge Fish at the time of his death, late last fall, was dean emeritus of the Mercer university law school at Macon.

Following the exercises, the supreme court will adjourn for the day out of respect to their former member, it was stated.

YOUNG MAN HELD ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Robert E. Lee, 21, was held Monday by United States Commissioner L. S. Ledbetter for the federal grand jury under $200 bond on charges of possessing and transporting three gallons and a half pint of liquor. Lee was caught on Boulevard near Ponce de Leon, it was alleged.

STINSON URGES BIBLE STUDY BY NEGROES

Rev. Richard D. Stinson, of The Atlanta Normal and Industrial institute preaching at A. M. E. Zion church said, "If our own people would consent to trust the Lord fully we could do so much more to help ourselves and others. Those who have taught us out of the book of books, those who have believed we would be far more serviceable as educated, free men, had in mind that we would take the opportunity of an education."

"Many of these people are living, many are at eternal resting. The negro and his children to come after him must not fail to measure up to what has and now is being expected by these good people in and out of our race."

"Colored people have triumphed in more ways than one, not because they have been able to tell their story to the world with the pen, but because they have carried their struggles to God on bended knees. I am not talking now out of imagination, but out of actual facts which have been demonstrated."

"God forbid that we become so wise or self centered that we may hope to carry forward the work with which we come in contact daily or that we use what we have learned to the pleasure of today and try to succeed and leave God out of our plans. Too much pleasure, too much dancing, too much disregard for the sabbath day, will bring down the wrath of God upon us."

"A great deal is being said concerning the attitude of an element in the two races. If all will keep busy and trust the teachings of the Bible all will be well. Accredited leaders of the white and colored races very well understand these problems. Intelligent, unselfish preachers in the pulpit will say that patience and constant prayer is required and that we will triumph through God and not very often by the ones set up by men."

"If history is to be believed we rise to our deserving place in this life not by masses or races but by individuals and it requires a long time. Uprightness and steady hard work is one of the keys to the problems of life. Among the limited opportunities the colored race has done very well but we must do better in the future."

"The foundation of doing better must be laid in the lives of our youth through Christian parents. The church has meant so much where the proper minister was the spiritual advisor. There was never a time when the godly leader meant so much to all classes of the people as now, especially the negro race."

AIR MAIL HEAD TO VISIT ATLANTA

Arrangements for New York-Atlanta overnight airmail service to start this summer will be discussed by Second Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover with Atlanta post office officials within a few days, it was announced Monday in Washington following his departure for Greensboro, N. C., Atlanta and Birmingham, Ala., on an inspection trip.

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—Second Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover in charge of the railway mail service and the air mail service, left today for Greensboro, N. C., Atlanta and Birmingham on an inspection trip. He expects to discuss with Greensboro and Atlanta officials the arrangements for the New York-Atlanta overnight airmail service which will open this summer.

HEARING IS ORDERED ON EMPLOYMENT RULE

Failing by only one-third of one vote to place an ordinance designed to regulate operation of employment agencies in Atlanta on second reading, which if successful would have been passed by a public hearing, friends of the paper Monday passed the paper to the ordinance committee for a public hearing.

Councilman Harry York, of the sixth and Alderman J. Allen Couch, of the fifth, led the fight to pass it Monday afternoon, while Alderman William B. Hartsfield, and Councilmen John A. White, Howard C. McCutcheon and Frank Reynolds opposed passage mainly on the grounds that it is customary to refer any drastic change of the law to a committee in order to get an expression from the public.

The paper would prevent operators of employment agencies from accepting registration fees or other moneys with the single exception of 20 per cent of the first month's salary of those for whom jobs are secured. It also would place operators under $5,000 surety bonds and make violation of the new ordinance punishable by fines not exceeding $100 or 30 days imprisonment, either or both in the discretion of the recorder.

Mr. York and Mr. Couch charged that certain operators take all the money they can get for registration fees and then, in some cases, send their clients to vacant lots for positions, to buildings where there are no elevators for jobs as elevator operators and other alleged irregular practices.

Mayor I. N. Ragsdale was given the right of the floor to discuss the paper and appealed to council to support it. He declared that his only interest was to protect persons who might be mistreated at the hands of unscrupulous operators of such services. He urged immediate action.

Alderman Robert E. Gann, of the sixth, offered an amendment cutting the license fee for operation of the

New Beauty Shop Culminates Long Dream of Owner

A pretty little blonde's fond hope and dream of a shop modeled after her own pet design, where she can aid her sisters in acquiring and preserving feminine beauty, is realized in the opening several days ago of the Gallaher Beauty Shop, on the second floor of the Peachtree building, at 100 Peachtree street.

Every conceivable form of beauty aid, from haircutting to facials, can be obtained at Mrs. Alice Gallaher's new shop, the equipment being of the latest design and complete in every detail.

Mrs. Gallaher's shop is distinctive in a number of ways. J. K. Didier was imported from Chicago as an exclusive woman's barber, and all shop operators are required to have at least three years experience. Several of the fourteen booth operators have had as many as 17 years experience.

The shop has several types of booths, one featuring facials, another permanent waving, still another scalp treatments, another shampoos, and so on. All booth wiring and piping is concealed in the walls, adding attractiveness to the shop.

Electric hair dryers, artificial sun baths, cold and hot air producers, special shampoo equipment, and hair wavers form a part of the shop's equipment, while there are many odds and ends of equipment designed for many different aids to beauty.

AGOGA CLASS TOPS ATTENDANCE MARKS

Atlanta Sunday schools were led in attendance Sunday by the Agoga class of the Baptist Tabernacle with a total of 341 members present at Sunday's services. It was announced by the Georgia Sunday School association. Second place went to the Berean class of the West End Baptist church, with 273 in attendance.

The Tabernacle, with a combined school attendance of 1,676, led the city churches Sunday, while the total attendance of the 20 schools reported was 12,513.

New Beauty Shop Culminates Long Dream of Owner

A pretty little blonde's fond hope and dream of a shop modeled after her own pet design, where she can aid her sisters in acquiring and preserving feminine beauty, is realized in the opening several days ago of the Gallaher Beauty Shop, on the second floor of the Peachtree building, at 100 Peachtree street.

Every conceivable form of beauty aid, from haircutting to facials, can be obtained at Mrs. Alice Gallaher's new shop, the equipment being of the latest design and complete in every detail.

Mrs. Gallaher's shop is distinctive in a number of ways. J. K. Didier was imported from Chicago as an exclusive woman's barber, and all shop operators are required to have at least three years experience. Several of the fourteen booth operators have had as many as 17 years experience.

The shop has several types of booths, one featuring facials, another permanent waving, still another scalp treatments, another shampoos, and so on. All booth wiring and piping is concealed in the walls, adding attractiveness to the shop.

Electric hair dryers, artificial sun baths, cold and hot air producers, special shampoo equipment, and hair wavers form a part of the shop's equipment, while there are many odds and ends of equipment designed for many different aids to beauty.

AGOGA CLASS TOPS ATTENDANCE MARKS

Atlanta Sunday schools were led in attendance Sunday by the Agoga class of the Baptist Tabernacle with a total of 341 members present at Sunday's services. It was announced by the Georgia Sunday School association. Second place went to the Berean class of the West End Baptist church, with 273 in attendance.

The Tabernacle, with a combined school attendance of 1,676, led the city churches Sunday, while the total attendance of the 20 schools reported was 12,513.

SENATE DEMOCRATS' CAUCUS.

The democrats of the senate, in caucus, following the adjournment of the 69th congress, unanimously re-elected Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, floor leader in the next senate.

In this they acted with commendable wisdom for the Arkansan demonstrated great ability, unflinching fairness, and a keen, alert, resourceful minority leadership in one of the most hectic sessions in the history of the legislative branch of government.

In the 70th senate the party margin will be so narrow that it will require one of Senator Robinson's long floor and parliamentary experience, particularly as that congress will immediately precede the next national campaign. As always, politics will therefore be the leading issue, particularly in the senate.

If Senators-elect Smith and Vane, of Illinois and Pennsylvania, respectively, are not seated, which seems quite probable, the democrats will actually have a majority of one over the republicans, but with the farm-labor member, Shipstead, holding all but a balance of power. He has usually voted with the republicans. In event he should continue to vote with the republicans there may be a tie, although Senator Blease, of South Carolina, who favors the seating of both Smith and Vane, has declared he will vote with the republicans in senate organization if they are not seated.

At best it is a coin-tossing proposition, with a great deal of significance resting upon the outcome. The senate democrats in caucus did well not to make the prohibition question a party issue. The faith of the party is outlined in its national platform which in turn is the function of the national convention. United States senators are legislators, and while commanding figures in party affairs, have no right as a party group to create party tenets.

The caucus acted wisely in urging continuance of the Reed slush fund commission, certainly until it has completed its Illinois and Pennsylvania cases.

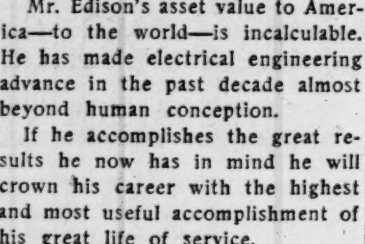

It is folly to attempt to lay the blame for the defeat of the deficiency bill upon the democrats. Senators Reed, of Pennsylvania, and Moses, of New Hampshire, led the filibuster against a vote—an attitude always inexcusable and indefensible.

The whole disgusting situation emphasized the utter unfairness of letting "lame ducks" legislate. The short session of congress should be eliminated. Or, the members of congress elected in November should be sworn in and begin their legislative services with the December session.

EDISON'S LATEST VENTURE. When one considers the millions of American dollars that go every month into imported rubber there is food for thought, and for anticipatory congratulation, that Thomas Edison is working out a formula for the production of rubber from the Madagascar vine, which can be grown successfully in south Georgia.

If he succeeds—and in this he seems to be most hopeful—then the production of this paramount commercial commodity may become one of the chief industries not only of south Georgia but of Florida, and of all the coast sections of the gulf states.

BITS OF NEW YORK LIFE

BY JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

New York—"Why did you quit column writing?" a friend inquired of a New York City writer.

"I'll tell you," replied the inky brother. "I tried to indulge a predilection for telling the truth and in taking me for a radical—a bushy apostle of the better day. So I quit column writing and took up a writing line of word juggling in which no one ever writes a lie unless he believes it to be the truth."

Charles Ulrich, known as Broadway as "The Lone Wolf of Purple Canyon"—who almost succeeded one time in selling Gloria Swanson a scenario—visited the newspaper club recently to deny a rumor that he was the bird who held the straight flush night of the Frisco earthquake.

Father Cashin, former Catholic chaplain at Sing Sing prison, laid the foundation for a number of sincere friendships during his tenure of office in the place where men are supposed to drag through the years leaving no footprints.

He is now attached to a downtown church in Manhattan, and to the rectory frequently there come visitors from "up the river," whose terms of release are in the hands of the penitentiary.

On a recent Saturday afternoon there appeared at the rectory one of the boys who, after 20 minutes' conversation, arose to leave, saying he wanted to "look the old stamper" ground over.

"Why don't you forget that old neighborhood and your companions of other days," said the priest, "and start new friends, new scenes. That's the safest way. I'll tell you what you do. Take a walk around town, go to a picture show and come back here tonight and I'll have the housekeeper fit you up a place to sleep. And if you wouldn't mind I'd like you to take up the collection under the 6 o'clock mass tomorrow morning."

Thus they parted. When Father Cashin retired that night he had laid out in appearance, but he seemed along about 11 o'clock with a bundle under his arm, a bit leg weary, but obviously pleased and proud of the trust the clergyman was placing in him.

"He was as good as his word," says Father Cashin. "He put in his appearance at the 6 o'clock mass and I nearly got the shock of my life when I saw him strolling down the middle aisle with a collection basket under his arm and a goodly sum of money in his pocket."

Her table adjacent mine and she had become loquacious after her sixteenth highball.

"He gets so," she was explaining to her friend, "because I call up and get his wife on the phone. I didn't say nothing out of the way. As soon as she says she's 'in' I hang up the receiver. So we have an argument 'til he quit me cold."

"But you got to admit, dearie," remarked the friend, "that it was a social error."

Old Judge Twincins who died the other day came within an ace of never activating the benefit of his Hizzoner was one of those great big, upstanding two-fisted drinkers, who regarded it as unreasonable for anyone to expect to find him sober after 6 p. m.

The political boss responsible for his nomination was the proud father of a six-month-old baby for whom Twincins manifested tremendous regard. He used to drop round to the boss's villa several times a week, hold the infant on his lap, descend upon his manifold charms and forecast a rosy future.

One night he got around to the house in like a Christmas tree. He picked up the baby who began to mourn and wail and in the heat of debate the candidate for judicial nomination lost his hold and the infant slipped from his arms. Fortunately the nurse happened to be standing by and caught the child as it fell.

It is a well-known fact in political circles that if the baby had landed on the floor that night, Twincins would never have landed on the bench.

As President Coolidge once remarked: "The ideal of America is idealism."

MORE MARINES REACH NICARAGUA

Managua, Nicaragua, March 7.—(AP) Arrival of 1,000 more United States Marines at Corinto today aboard the transport Henderson, together with the announcement that 133 Marines are going to Matagalpa to protect Americans there has greatly reassured Harold Patterson, British charge d'affaires here.

Mr. Patterson said today's developments, together with assurances which he had received from the state department at Washington and in his conversations with Admiral Lattimer at Corinto March 2, satisfied him that British interests would be protected. He pointed out that there were large British holdings at Matagalpa.

England Satisfied.

"His majesty's government is satisfied now that the interests of British nationals in Nicaragua will be adequately protected henceforth," the charge d'affaires told The Associated Press here.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creosolium, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creosolium is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creosolium contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creosolium is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist—(adv.)

HOW TO HAVE A CLEAR HEAD

End Stiffness, Sneezing, Huskiness, Inflammation

Do you get up in the morning with a stopped-up nose? Are you breathing passages clogged with a cold? Are you subject to catarrh, bronchial irritations, asthma or hay fever? Have you that mean, low-spirited feeling which comes from lack of proper oxygen? If so, here is a pleasant, harmless cigarette that will clear out the head, nose and throat.

These cigarettes are the formula of Dr. J. W. Blosser, and are composed of medicinal flowers, herbs and berries.

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes contain no tobacco, no cubebs, nothing habit-forming, and are entirely harmless. They are used by women and children, as well as men.

It is so simple to inhale this pleasant and soothing smoke. Much more convenient than using sprays, washes, douches, etc.

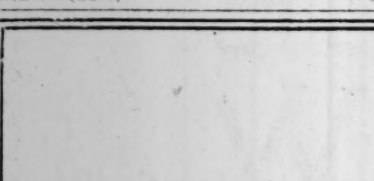

If you suffer from any catarrhal trouble, catarrhal deafness, asthma, hay fever, bronchial irritations or frequent colds, get from any druggist a convenient pocket size package of Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes, and prove for yourself their pleasant, beneficial effects.—(adv.)

INGROWN NAIL Turns Right Out Itself

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can no longer penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—(adv.)

Press this afternoon, "and Great Britain does not contemplate any further moves such as the assignment of the cruiser Colombo to Corinto."

The Colombo sailed Saturday for an unknown destination, after spending a week off Corinto to provide refuge, if necessary, to British subjects in Nicaragua.

Two trainloads of the men were dispatched to relieve the many bluejackets temporarily on duty for the protection of the lines of communication and transportation.

Other Marines will be sent within a week to relieve the detachment which left yesterday for Matagalpa, in the interior, while still others will be sent to Masaya, Ascension and other places.

Brigadier-General Logan Feland, U. S. M. C., came to Managua this afternoon. The Henderson is sailing probably Wednesday or Thursday.

MARINES GO TO PREVENT FIGHT

Managua, Nicaragua, March 7.—(AP)—United States Marines—135 of them—today were on the way to Matagalpa to prevent fighting between the liberal and conservative factions.

Major H. G. Bartlett, in charge of the contingent, made known that a note would be sent to General Moncada, chief liberal military leader, informing him that the liberals should attack Matagalpa; they would be fired on, as the Marines were being sent for the express purpose of preventing combats that might jeopardize the lives and interests of Americans in Matagalpa.

200 WILL ATTEND UPSTOWN DINNER

With reservations for the "homecoming" dinner to be given in honor of retiring Congressman William D. Upshaw, 7 o'clock tonight on the Ansley hotel roof, already around the 200 mark, announcement was made Monday by James R. Bachman, chairman of the reception committee, that no more seats could be reserved after 11 o'clock this morning.

Speeches by prominent Georgians and a musical program by the Italian Harp quartet will feature the program. Numerous friends of Mr. Upshaw from local points and prohibition advocates from all parts of the country are expected to attend the dinner.

COUNCIL PASSES FLAG ORDINANCE SPONSORED BY VETS

A flag ordinance introduced by Councilman Harry York at the instance of Greater Atlanta Post No. 390, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was passed Monday afternoon by city council. The ordinance aims at the city who may commercialize the United States flag by reprinting the emblem on advertising matter or otherwise treating the national emblem in any "unseemly or disrespectful manner," it was explained.

Among leaders in the move for enactment of the ordinance were J. H. Bush, commander of the V. F. W. post No. 390, and R. L. Henry, chairman of the flag committee. The measure had the endorsement of the American Legion, the United Spanish War Veterans, and Disabled American War Veterans.

Veterans of Foreign Wars are popularly known as the "Gold Stripes" organization, being an association of former soldiers, sailors and marines who have seen active foreign service under the United States flag.

MRS. L. LIEBERMAN WILL BE BURIED ON WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Leon Lieberman, 88, pioneer resident of Atlanta, who died Sunday night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Meyers, 1180 North Boulevard, will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Rabbi David Marx will officiate and interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

Mrs. Lieberman was survived by two daughters, Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. S. J. Ullman, of Norfolk, Va.; two sons, F. G. Lieberman, of Baltimore, Md., and I. R. Lieberman, of Sandusky, N. Y.; and a son-in-law, Sam R. Greenberg & Co. in charge.

World Looks To South For Race Problem Solution, Jones Says

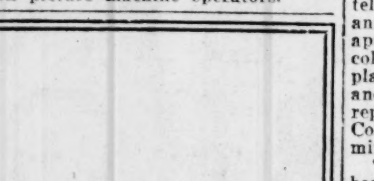

"More and more the world is looking to America, and particularly to the south, for help in the solution of its tangled problems of race relations," said Dr. Thomas Jesse Jones, of New York, director of the Phelps Stokes fund, in a brief talk before a luncheon group at the Ansley hotel Monday.

Dr. Jones was the guest of the commission on interracial cooperation, which he helped to set up in Atlanta in 1910, and most of the others present were connected with that organization.

COUNCIL INDORSES ALL-THEATER REVUE

Unanimous indorsement and commendation of city council of the mid-night show to be staged Friday night at the City Auditorium for the benefit of the Tallulah Falls Industrial school was given Monday. The resolution was introduced by Alderman Claude E. Buchanan.

It pointed out that the show will begin at 11 o'clock at night and will be staged by all the theater managers of the Atlanta association, with 100 per cent cooperation of performers, union musicians, stage employees and motion picture machine operators.

Will Your Death Cause Stir Or Cause Quiet Suffering?

The Best Donaldson murder mystery again flashes into the limelight, thousands reading with keen interest of the death of the criminal investigator.

Best Donaldson's death created a sensation. Hundreds of others die and little is made of the fact—but in many cases suffering and want result.

Few men are prepared to die; only a tiny percentage have provided adequately for their families when death summons them.

Then let The Constitution aid you in attending to this most important matter.

Consider the countless accidents which daily take toll of life and limb of physical suffering and of financial want? Against the constant peril of them The Constitution offers you the famous $7,500 travel accident policy issued by the North American Accident Insurance company and available to all Constitution readers between the ages of 15 and 70. The price is $1.25 per year, a fraction of a penny a day.

In return you are assured of payments ranging down from $7,500 in case of death resulting from certain accidents named in the policy; heavy cash sums for permanent injuries; and $10 weekly indemnity for disability resulting from the accidents named.

You may be claimed today as a victim of the ever-mounting accident wave. A wreck of trains, a crash of autos, the on-rushing wheels of a speeding car, a burning building may mean your death at any moment. Remember that over $50,000 has been paid on claims of Constitution policyholders.

Watch for advertisements of the great protective offer appearing regularly in this paper.

This $7,500 travel, $2,000 auto and $1,000 pedestrian accident policy is issued only to subscribers of The Daily and Sunday Constitution and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 17 at $1.25 per policy per year. Open to both old and new subscribers.

One who is now taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for same through carrier in Atlanta and suburbs, or through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, monthly, or otherwise, is a subscriber, and is eligible.

Those taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution by mail, either through a postoffice or rural route delivery and all those subscribing through the ten-word building contest for one year are eligible by paying $1.25 per year per policy above the subscription price.

In sending application for insurance, the applicant must state name, age, give name and occupation. If beneficiary is desired, full Christian name must be given and the relation of same to the insured.

Tear Gas Used To End Student Riot in Michigan

Ann Arbor, Michigan, March 7.—(AP) Police brought tear gas into play here tonight to quell a disturbance caused when a mob of approximately 500 students and citizens, celebrating Michigan's winning the "Big Ten" basketball championship, attempted to rush two down-town theaters.

Two students and a local resident were injured in the clash with police, which occurred in front of the Majestic theater. They are: John Blakeley, Rockford, Ill., senior, burned by a wad from a tear gas bomb.

Marvin Slater, a graduate of Michigan, of Ann Arbor, cut and bruised by flying missiles.

Victor Westerman, a resident of Ann Arbor, cut and bruised.

FIRST STEPS TAKEN IN PAVING PROJECT

Initial steps looking toward widening and repaving of Whitehall street from Forsyth to the Central of Georgia railroad and of Stewart avenue from Whitehall to the city limits were taken Monday when council authorized appointment of a committee of five members to investigate costs and to make a report to council as soon as the survey of the two projects is completed.

Alderman Charles M. Ford, of the tenth, was author of the paper, which provided for immediate survey of the territory which would be affected.

Mayor Pro Tem, W. G. Dobbs, appointed Mr. Ford chairman of the committee, and named Alderman William B. Hartfield and Robert E. Pennington and Councilman Frank Calloway, W. Garland Cooper, Howard C. McCutcheon and Jim Osburn as other members.

The proposal is to eliminate the bottle-neck caused by the confluence of Whitehall, Spring and Forsyth streets by widening Whitehall into a 50-foot boulevard adequate to care for heavy vehicular traffic.

This project already has the backing of the Central Improvement association, the Capitol View Civic league and other civic organizations and is said to be one of the major improvements needed in that section of the city.

Cost of the project is estimated at less than $300,000, which could be shared by the city and county without serious financial drain to either, Mr. Ford and others said.

Proposal to widen Stewart avenue also is considered to be of prime importance in movement of traffic in the western section of the city.

Mr. Ford, Alderman W. G. Dobbs and Robert E. Gann and Councilman E. J. Turner authors of the measure, proposed to float a bond issue for $1,250,000 for reconstruction and relocation of the Battle Hill tubercular hospital.

This paper was passed to the hospitals and charities committee of city council for a report.

"We feel that flotation of the bonds would enable the city to wage a successful fight against the white plague with adequate facilities," Mr. Ford said. "We also would relocate the institution in a more desirable place."

GOVERNOR HOPES FOES WILL DECIDE IF HE'S KLANSMAN

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Kenosha, Wis., March 7.—"If the 'Madison ring' ever succeeds in settling whether I am a member of the Ku Klux Klan, something may yet be accomplished by a comprehensive agricultural program for Wisconsin," Governor Fred R. Zimmerman declared here today in a speech before a joint meeting of Kiwanis, Rotary, Optimist and A. B. C. clubs. He advocated a great annual livestock sale at the state fair grounds.

"In one breath the 'Madison ring' tells you I am firing all Catholics, and in the next breath they report I have appointed another Catholic. In one column of their kept press they complain that I have insulted all Jews, and in the next column the kept press reports that E. J. Gross, a Jew, is the Colonel House of the Zimmerman administration."

"I defy any enemy of the Klan to beat my record. My first appointment was a Catholic to be county judge for Dane county and my latest appointment was that of a Jew who had been a rabbi, to be judge of the superior court at Madison."

FIVE CARS OF HOGS ARE SOLD AT CAMILLA

Thomasville, Ga., March 7.—(Special).—The Mitchell county hog sale held in Camilla last week was one of the largest in the history of sales of that county. There were 424 hogs weighing 78,900 pounds sold at $9.01 per 100 pounds, basis of number ones, which brought a total of $8,820.28.

They were bought by the Hall Commission company, and the five cars were shipped to Moultrie.

NEW YORK WOMAN STRUCK BY AUTO

Mrs. J. L. Patterson, of New York, is in Davis-Fischer hospital dangerously hurt and her daughter, Mrs. E. F. Whitehead narrowly escaped serious injury when knocked down by an automobile early Monday night in front of the Imperial hotel at the junction of Ivy and Peachtree streets, according to police reports.

Mrs. Patterson and her daughter were walking across Peachtree street when knocked down by the high-powered automobile, which never stopped but increased its speed after the accident, according to information given to Call Officers E. E. Brackett and M. D. Cartwright. The license number of the automobile which injured Mrs. Patterson was not learned.

Soon after the accident, a negro, Horatio Perry, of 217 Butler street, was arrested by Patrolmen Denny and Wilcox at East Linden street and Bedford place, charged with being drunk and operating a car while under the influence of liquor. At the time of arrest, he was driving a car in which he had mistaken H. H. Jones, superintendent of a local car company, for a motorcycle officer, and had attempted to speed away from him, the officers were told.

SENATORS CHARGE PATRONAGE SALE

Washington, March 7.—(Special). Senators Harris and George, in a conference at the white house today with President Coolidge, charged Ben Davis, negro national republican committeeman from Georgia, and his associates, with the sale of federal offices in Georgia and protested vigorously.

The Georgia senators also urged the president not to give Judge William J. Fison, of the new middle Georgia district, a recess appointment, as has been expected. They suggested that Fison be given some other appointment. On account of the charges against Davis and his associates, they urged that a "permanent" judge be appointed. If Fison is renounced, they told the president, two-thirds of the senate will vote against confirmation. Only a majority is required. His rejection, they said, is assured.

"It is customary not to state what the president said," Senator Harris said, "but I do not believe that Mr. Fison's name will ever come before the senate for judge of the middle district."

This was taken to mean that the president indicated he would not give Fison a recess appointment, but the senators declined to disclose what the president said.

In connection with the charges against Ben Davis and his associates, Harris said he showed President Coolidge a photostat copy of a letter from Davis to one of his republican friends "in which Davis stated that the applicant must signify that he is willing to do about some funds for party use before endorsing his application."

"The reply on the letter," Harris said, "said the matter had already been attended to."

Senator Harris declined to make the letter public.

He said that he intended to press for action at the next session on his resolution for an investigation of Georgia patronage, which was introduced by Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, chairman of the judiciary committee, to include an investigation of patronage dispensation generally. The senate adjourned without action on the Norris resolution.

Senator Ernst, of Kentucky, who led the opposition to this resolution, is now out of the senate, Harris said.

"Senator Norris has assured me that he will support me in seeking passage of the resolution at the next session."

At the conference today the two Georgia senators also told the president they were deeply concerned about the Nicaraguan and Mexican situations and hoped everything would be done to prevent the United States from being drawn into a war with Mexico.

Judge Fison's nomination was withdrawn by President Coolidge last session after the judiciary committee also voted against confirmation in the first session of the sixty-ninth congress, after which the president gave Fison a recess appointment, on which he served until March 4.

The decision upheld a decision of the Fannin superior court in which the lower court declined to grant an injunction sought by Rogers and others restraining the company from building the dam and overflowing the land on both sides of the stream.

Former Atlantian Dies at Hospital in Rhode Island

Winder, Ga., March 7.—(Special). News has been received here of the death of Lieutenant Henry Grady Cannon, 37, a former Winder boy, who died of a cerebral hemorrhage at the naval hospital at Newport, R. I. He was buried on Tuesday, March 1, in Arlington cemetery at Washington, D. C.

Cannon was a lieutenant in the medical corps, United States navy. He was reared in Winder, graduated from the Winder High school, took a course of medicine at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and practiced in Atlanta.

For a while before he entered the world war, he was connected with Dr. Hugh M. Loker, in Atlanta.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cannon, of Winder. Mrs. Annie C. Wood, of Washington, D. C. and Atlanta, is his sister.

Drop in Mercury And Cloudy Skies Forecast Today

Storm-threatening skies Monday betokened nothing more than a slight drop in temperature with the probability of very light rain this morning, according to today's forecast for Atlanta and vicinity, by C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist of the governmental weather bureau.

"Cloudiness" that held Atlanta in unpleasant gloominess Monday is expected to continue for another day," the weatherman stated, adding that uncertainty shrouded the atmospheric conditions that would follow after today. "Another disturbance with low barometrical pressures is raging over Texas," Mr. von Herrmann declared, "and it is likely to move towards the northeast, though it may travel along the coast and leave this section clear."

No indication of what this disturbance would result in if it spread to Atlanta was given by the weatherman, although he stated it will probably not cause another cold snap, such as followed the recent Texas disturbance.

Little variation was shown in the temperature range reported for Monday. The low level was 58 degrees, while the highest point reached was 67. Gloomy skies and fresh winds were scheduled to bring nothing more than light rains and a four or five-degree drop in temperature. Probable temperature range for today was given as 50 to 60 degrees.

'Gorilla' Keeps Crowd in Roars At Erlanger

Although the Erlanger theater could have taken care of quite a few more patrons Monday night without having to give the S. R. O. sign a work-out, it was a noisy, roaring crowd that sat in on the premiere Atlanta performance of Ralph Spence's comedy-mystery play, "The Gorilla," and ran the gamut of emotions over the high-powered "monkeyshines" with which the play abounds.

"The Gorilla," entertains in much the same manner that "The Bat" entertained and resembles that mystery masterpiece in no little degree. As the name implies, it is a gorilla that causes all the trouble instead of a bat but the thrill is there just the same. This play outdoes its fore-runner, however, in that it introduces some real comedy relief—as matter of fact it takes on the color of a happy farce at times rather than a deep-dyed mystery.

William Balfour, as Mulligan, one of the trick detectives, supplies most of the action, while "Jeff," a negro servant, played by Wilbur Cox, and Mr. Garry, the other "dick," feed the comedy in capable manner. These three, with Arthur Marsden, an English detective and pseudo-playwright, carry the mystery along and do so convincingly.

For people who like their little ghost stories done up brown and black, "The Gorilla" provides a pleasant two hours' entertainment. There is some snappy comedy entwined

"Blossom Time"—Considerable interest has been aroused in musical and literary circles by the recently published statement that Franz Schubert, upon whose life the Messrs. Schubert operetta, "Blossom Time," is based, may have composed his scores with the thought in mind that many years hence they would be used for musical comedies.

Whether or not there is any foundation for such a belief, it is nevertheless interesting to listen to the various reasons that have been advanced by those who seem inclined to place more than average credence on such wild stories. Schubert's scores were woven into the modern numbers without the change of a single note. This is really remarkable when one stops to think that Schubert's scores and melodies were composed one hundred and twenty-five years ago. Seats for all performances of the local engagement are now on sale.

Rialto.

If you like Jack Holt, Zane Grey stories or westerns—then "The Mysterious Rider" at the Rialto this week was made for you. If you happen to like all the elements mentioned, then this is your lucky week.

The latest story to be adapted to the screen from the pen of the master of western stories and perfect battle average, and the personable Jack Holt also adds to his laurels in "The Mysterious Rider." Betty Jewel and David Torrence head his supporting cast.

Holt is cast in the role of Bent Wade, whose world is of some worth in the community in which he lives. Wade falls into difficulties and is forced into outlawry. He is captured and about to be lynched when his pal forces the ranchers at the point of two guns to bring him back to town for a fair trial. How Wade escapes and goes about the country as "The Mysterious Rider" and how he finally saves the situation makes a story packed with thrills that the Jack Holt fans have come to expect.

Comedy, "Don Keri, Son of Burro," which is just as ridiculously funny as its title, provides the heavy comedy element of this week's program.

Midnight Frolic.

"Smart-Set Minstrels," one of the biggest of all colored entertainment aggregations, is scheduled at the Rialto for a big midnight frolic Friday night at 11 o'clock. Featured in the cast of 50 performers are some of the outstanding colored musical comedy stars in America. The "Smart-Set Minstrels" is a thoroughly modern company, combining the best features of the old-time negro minstrels and the fast, peppy numbers of a 1927 musical comedy. Tickets are on sale day night frolic may be secured at no advance in prices at either the theater or at Chess place at Five o'clock. Manager Tom Baileys announces that he is expecting the biggest crowd of the season Friday night.

Ponce de Leon.

"Hot Water"—Atlanta's newest community theater opened Monday at Ponce de Leon and Boulevard. The opening feature is Harold Lloyd in the picture of a hundred laughs, "Hot Water." No home is big enough for two families is the basis of the theme of the story. Joyanna Ralston is the leading lady. The recently published statement that Franz Schubert, upon whose life the Messrs. Schubert operetta, "Blossom Time," is based, may have composed his scores with the thought in mind that many years hence they would be used for musical comedies.

Palace.

"La Boheme"—The gaiety and frivolity of the Parisian life, the beauty and pathos of a great love, these are the things that are brought out in "La Boheme," starring John Gilbert and Lillian Gish, which is the current feature at the Palace theater. Inman Park. Bert Lytell will be seen Wednesday in "Obey the Law," a crook picture by Max Marcen, author of "Cheating Cheaters," and other notable stage successes. The story concerns the heroic adventures of a lovable crook.

Metropolitan.

With reveing melting before love, while spectacle and splendor add glamour to the tense suspense of a gripping plot, Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, supreme lovers of the screen, moved a packed audience from tears to ecstasy in "The Night of Love" at the Metropolitan theater Monday night.

The picture brought the thrill of love and the fervor of youth to the hearts of the youth and the old. Love, grown out of revenge in a yipsy's heart, met with an equally fervent emotion in the heart of a royal prince.

With a splendor and lavishness of production, a gripping plot that bears upon its crests or into its depths of love and desire, and a fiery interpretation of love at the same time heavenly and unresistingly human by Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, "The Night of Love" will undoubtedly be remembered in Atlanta as one of the most worthy cinema endeavors shown here for many months.

Tudor.

"Secret Orders"—Showing now at the Tudor is a drama of mystery and adventure, of the part a daring girl played in a master plot, and selling under sealed and secret orders. Evelyn Brent stars in the picture, which is "Secret Orders."

An unusual amount of action and mystery make the picture real entertainment.

Tenth Street.

"Bardelys"—The genius of King Victor, famous screen director, in making his characters human, appearing real and not actors, is exemplified again in "Bardelys the Magnificent," starring John Gilbert, which is the attraction at the Tenth Street theater. "Bardelys" deals largely with figures of ancient royalty. The cast is one of the most notable assembled this season, and includes Rao L'Arcy, Arthur Lubin, Theodore Von Eltz and Eleanor Boardman as leading woman. A new print of an old favorite, "Male and Female," is the attraction for Wednesday. The all-star cast includes George Swanson, Thomas Meighan and Lila Lee.

West End.

"Mare Nostrum"—Alice Terry and Antonio Moreno enact the leading roles in Rex Ingram's screen version of Blasco Ibañez's famous novel, "Mare Nostrum," which closes a two-day engagement at the West End theater Tuesday night, after outstanding features of the turn of the most delightful and sincere performances ever seen on the screen. During their motion picture careers these two noted players have never appeared at such an advantage as in "Mare Nostrum." Charles Ray departs from his usual country boy to play the son of a Pittsburgh millionaire in "The Auction Block," which is scheduled as the feature for Wednesday.

is the feature attraction at the Fairfax, popular East Point motion picture theater. Made with the cooperation of the organization's national headquarters, the film is not only an accurate and highly instructive portrayal of scout activities and ideals, but has a powerfully dramatic story that furnishes all the entertainment qualities of an excellent picture. Nearly a hundred scouts from crack California troops appear in the production. "A Regular Scout" will close a two-day engagement Tuesday night.

Howard.

That old and popular stage favorite, "The Third Degree," is to be seen this week at the Howard in its screen version—its second screen adaptation in fact. And the wonder of it is that it has not lost any of its powerful audience appeal. With modern photography, it has rather gained in power.

The director has seen fit to utilize some of the camera tricks originated by Carl Froese and introduced in "Variety." It is much more effective than the old film and the play itself. Modern technique and the timely awaking of tempo in motion pictures has made it entertaining to the nth degree. Dolores Costello, Louise Dresser and Josephine McKim head the cast and give excellent performances.

It is hard to choose the stage headliner between Harriet Krauth, soprano, and the Public Unit, "Moonlight." Miss Krauth has a beautiful voice and Monday audiences were well pleased. "Moonlight" is a colorful collection of music and dancing.

Arthur Martel, in his second week as "most musical" at the Howard, repeated his success of last week with "Selections of Victor Herbert," and his own original novelty, "Hats," a clever bit of musical comedy.

Usual screen novelties complete the bill.

Joe Morris and Flo Campbell, in a riotously funny comedy sketch, headliners on the vaudeville bill with four other strong supporting acts and a wonderful and amazing picture production "Flesh and the Devil" form a program which opened at Loew's

Grand Tuesday night. The program is so safe to say that it is as enjoyable a program as has been seen here in many months.

For genuine fun, cleverness of lines and originality of presentation the comedy skit "Any Apartment" offered by Morris and Campbell and a capable company, stands right around the top of the list in real merit. Joe Morris got the laughs from the time he started as a dish washing husband until he ended up in one of the boxes as an applauding spectator. Miss Campbell is a great singer and the combination was a happy one for the audiences Monday.

Probably no more ambitious production than "Flesh and the Devil" has been screened for John Gilbert since his enormous hit in "The Big Parade." This magnificent screen player has a marvelous role in "Flesh and the Devil" and backed by a stupendous and spectacular production with Greta Garbo and Lars Cammell in strong supporting roles, it would be hard to imagine a more pleasing screen combination.

Good old Al H. Wilson, erstwhile "golden voice" and singer, is a gem as a comedian, and he surely makes good in the role. He has a clever line of patter and sings a few songs, and there just to show that he still knows the art of putting across a song hit. He was roundly applauded Monday for his fine work.

Fridkin and Rida in a gorgeous dance creation with special music, beautiful scenery and costumes and pretty lighting effects scored a hit. Phil Dolan and Eleanor Gale offered a pleasing group of baritone songs, with some pretty yodling numbers. The opening turn is a funny tramp-comedy act offered by Bordier and Boyer which also was well received.

RUBIN'S FUNSTERS
BRING BIG-TIME
ACT TO GEORGIA

Another notch of success in the vaudeville unit idea is cut this week with the appearance at the Georgia of Benny Rubin's gag of funsters. This week's bill has "big-time" protruding from every act. The special "Corporal Kate" is likewise very good entertainment.

Sam Berk and Juanita Saun open the bill with their "Vogue" song, dance and novelty offering. Miss Saun scores particularly with her song number. Mr. Berk's dances are the other outstanding features of the turn.

Deiro, the famous accordionist, is next with a series of numbers played by only he can play them. He offers "Romeo and Juliet," "Valencia" and "Bluette Valse" with a general summary of the season's popular songs as his encore number. The encore number with Deiro is established as his regular offerings.

Frances Arms, one of the most personable young ladies seen on local boards in quite a while, follows with songs and patter. Her negro dialect number is very good and extraordinarily realistic.

The headliner and master of ceremonies in the final roundup which makes the unit idea so popular is Benny Rubin, followed with his company in a little "sketch" (to quote Mr. Rubin) which is both nonsensical and ridiculous—ridiculously funny.

In the final number, in which all the artists' the program takes part, Miss Arms and Mr. Rubin won first honors. The number was a series of "sketches," each one ringing the bell vigorously and lengthily.

"Corporal Kate" on the screen is a story of the "women's part in the war," featuring Vera Reynolds and Julia. The ultra in smart dresses and exquisite gowns drew gasps from both women and men. Elaborate settings and fine lighting effects greatly enhanced the loveliness of the young women.

Alan Devitt, Gus Forbes, Lawrence Keating and Jay Mulrey—the whole outlay of favorites, received a big hand.

"American Born" is the type of show so many theatergoers have requested, a show in which players could bedeck themselves in finery, and this reviewer enjoyed both the play and the lavish settings immensely. Others no doubt will enjoy the philosophy and its fresh humor. The plot is carefully screened, abounds in romance and the glamor of love—and is a downright good show.

CHINESE LEADER READY FOR PEACE

BY CHARLES DAILEY.
(Copyright, 1927, by The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)
Pekin, March 7.—Morning newspapers are announcing that General Chang Tao-Lin offers to suspend hostilities against the Cantonese forces on condition that they dismiss M. Borodin and the other soviet advisers. He says the moment these men are expelled he will cease hostilities and discuss with the Cantonese, in a spirit of frankness and sincerity, the fundamentals for Chinese rehabilitation. General Chang further expressed strong opposition to foreign interference in behalf of either faction, saying that Great Britain has not completely altered its policy toward China.

With the rift in the Kuomintang, owing to General Chiang Kai-Shek's opposition to bolshevism and General Chang's long line to the Yellow river, neither side is able to wage an effective war beyond the present positions. General Chang, who desired Honan province for a larger area, ordered the capture of the strategic railway center at Hanchow by Friday.

While the Cantonese, having captured Anking, capital of Anhwei province, now are converging upon Nanking, which should settle Shanghai's fate. The loss of Shanghai would be fatal to the Pekin government for it constitutes 40 per cent of the customs revenues.

THREE STANDARD OIL BARGES ARE SEIZED.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, March 7.—Secretary of the Navy Wilbur today announced receipt of cablegrams from China stating that Marshal Sun Chuan Fung had seized the Standard Oil barges on the Grand canal which runs from Hangchow and Tientsin. The message stated that Sun's apparent purpose was to run them north toward the coast.

Recently a Standard Oil launch seized by Chinese troops on the Yangtze river was recovered by American marines. No mention was made of plans for the recovery of the three barges but it is understood they will be restored to the company.

Admiral C. S. Williams, commanding the Asiatic fleet, reported in a dispatch dated March 4, that British sailors and Chinese coolies had fought over the possession of British baggage at Ichang. The British kept the baggage.

DECATUR MAN
SLUGGED, ROBBED
BY HOLDUP PAIR

Gordon Crews, of Decatur, was slugged, knocked down and robbed of $7 and a gold watch early Monday night as he was walking on Trinity street between Whitehall and Pryor streets, by two well-dressed unidentified young white men, according to police reports.

If the slugging of Decatur, reported to police that his pocket, containing $15, was picked early Monday night while riding on an East Fair street car.

Mrs. Louise Sheppard, of 155 Bass street, reported to police that a white man burglarized her home Monday morning and escaped with $15 in money. She told police that she went to purchase some groceries and when she returned she saw the burglar through a glass door but he escaped as she screamed for help.

The laundry of Lum Pong at 111 Ivy street, was burglarized Monday night and $100 and several packages of laundry were missing, police were told.

C. Williams, of 21 West Baker street, reported the loss of two suits of clothes and $10 from his home.

Two homes at 181 South Pryor street and 344 Whitehall street were also burglarized. A man, afternoon according to police reports. A quantity of clothing and some cash were missing from each place, police were told.

NEW LEADING MAN
PROVES REAL STAR
AT THE FORSYTH

A happy mixture of good American and English comedy, plus brilliant settings, plus gorgeous costuming of charming young women and equally as brilliant glitz rags for gentlemen players, is fascinatingly blended in "American Born," this week's Forsyth theater attraction.

Richard Stevenson, making his debut in the role of a red-blooded American in merry of England, was given a rousing greeting and by way of showing that one good turn deserves another, hopped into an extremely difficult role and gave as fancy an exhibition of playing as the most critical might wish for.

Mr. Stevenson is the typical fine humored American, who fascinates and grips one with his fine stage personality, his thoroughly at home manner and his marked ability. In fairness it must be said that he will have many better roles than he has this week, and in which Atlantans will like him mightily.

Aside from the conspicuous playing of Miss Ellie Baker, leading woman; Rhea Dively and Theodosia Ehler, the ultra in smart dresses and exquisite gowns drew gasps from both women and men. Elaborate settings and fine lighting effects greatly enhanced the loveliness of the young women.

Alan Devitt, Gus Forbes, Lawrence Keating and Jay Mulrey—the whole outlay of favorites, received a big hand.

"American Born" is the type of show so many theatergoers have requested, a show in which players could bedeck themselves in finery, and this reviewer enjoyed both the play and the lavish settings immensely. Others no doubt will enjoy the philosophy and its fresh humor. The plot is carefully screened, abounds in romance and the glamor of love—and is a downright good show.

HASTINGS SPEAKS AT DECATUR MEETING

Decatur, Ga., March 7.—(Special.) H. G. Hastings, president of the Georgia association, was the chief speaker here today at a meeting boosting the cow, hog and hen program for Georgia farmers. L. J. Skinner, of the State College of Agriculture, spoke on "Food Products."

The meeting was held in the courthouse, many farmers being present. The meeting was arranged in cooperation with E. P. McGee, DeKalb county farm agent.

Husband's Ruse To Trap Rival Lands Him in Jail

Trying to "square" a triangle by use of an automobile put B. C. Fincher, 30, of near Macon, in the city jail Monday night.

Fincher, who became "separated" from his wife last November, returned to Atlanta to smooth things over. Learning that there was "another man" in the case, Fincher tried to solve the age-old problem by his own mathematics.

According to his story to police, the jilted husband decided to lure M. C. Thompson, of 567 Central avenue, from the house where his wife was living by driving Thompson's automobile around the block.

The ruse worked to a T. Only Thompson didn't run out of the house as scheduled. Instead, he telephoned the police and City Detectives C. L. Taylor and L. D. Cody answered the call.

Fincher, who was in the car, was found by the police. He was taken to the city jail and held without bond.

FORD BOND PROPOSAL

First indorsement of the proposal of Alderman Charles M. Ford, of the tenth, to float a bond issue of $1,200,000 for reconstruction of Battle Hill tuberculosis sanitarium and for relocating it was given Monday night by the Capital View Civic League.

The club also indorsed the proposal to widen Whitehall street from Forsyth to the Central of Georgia railway tracks and Stewart avenue from Whitehall to the city limits, both of which measures were offered council Monday afternoon by Mr. Ford. Council authorized appointment of a special investigating committee headed by Mr. Ford to survey the proposals and make reports.

HAND-BUILDING IS A STRICT TASKMASTER

AMONG men who spend their lives analyzing motor cars, it is traditional that no instance of compromise construction is ever found in a Pierce-Arrow.

Indeed, experts frequently marvel that Pierce-Arrow adheres so strictly to its perfection principles, particularly in minor details where a little less care might do.

One reason, of course, for Pierce-Arrow's undeviating insistence upon masterly handiwork, even in the seemingly unimportant sections of the car, is the example that is set for every workman in the company's employ. Each realizes that unusually good work is the only kind of work acceptable.

And the result is seen not only in the unique immunity from age and use which Pierce-Arrow chassis construction enjoys but also in the spirited, ever-fresh good style of the bodies by Pierce-Arrow.

SUCCESS OF VARIED FARM PLAN SHOWN

Ashburn, Ga., March 7.—(Special.) A vivid demonstration of the economic success of the cow, hog and hen plan of diversified farming which aroused the campaigners to renewed efforts throughout the state was given here today by Governor Walker, F. H. Abbott, and other officials of the Georgia association by the people of Turner county in a county-wide mass meeting at the courthouse and a second meeting and luncheon by the Kiwanis club and Woman's club.

Plan Is Lauded.

A banker, a department store operator, a farmer on a large scale, and a tenant farmer, in rapid succession, related to the mass meeting the success of the plan here in Turner county, its home.

"We have watched the operations of the cow, hog, hen farmers in this county and studied them closely," J. S. Johnson, vice president of the Ashburn bank, told the governor and assembly. "We loaned on character and ability. I want to say here that every man, without exception, who followed this plan, has met his obligations in a fully satisfactory manner."

The same story fell from the lips of G. W. Stubbs, president of the Ashburn department store. "This type of farmer is enjoying prosperity," he declared. "He is a good customer, an excellent credit risk, and he pays his debts promptly. The plan has been entirely successful from the standpoint of the business man and supply store operator."

John Evans, planter on a large scale, running 12 tenant farms and 50 plows, declared without qualification that the diversified plan of the Georgia association had brought prosperity.

A farm of 50 acres, operated by H. H. Padgett, using but one horse, brought a gross profit of $2,000 plus the food and feedstuffs required on the farm in 1926. Padgett declared this was accomplished through five milk cows, two brood sows and eight acres planted to cotton. All food for the family and for the stock was raised on the farm. Cows produced brought $500 for the year; hogs $500, cotton $500 and produce, corn, oats and hay, $500.

"Turner county's name is known throughout Georgia today and in many places throughout the world," the governor told the gathering. "Its plan forms the hope of Georgia agriculture and the basis for prosperity for all of us, the business man no less than the farmer."

The meeting here today, attended by a large crowd from Turner and surrounding counties, was the opening gun in the state of a week's observance of the cow, hog and hen plan of diversified farming, which originated in Turner county three years ago.

TIFT FARMERS USE DIVERSIFIED PLAN.

Tifton, Ga., March 7.—(Special.) Facts showing the prosperity attending adoption of the cow-hog-hen plan of diversified farming and livestock raising in Tift county, were related here tonight. At a countywide meeting of farmers, bankers and business men.

Salient declarations of F. C. Chandler, county farm agent and M. E. Hendrix, vice president of the National Bank of Tifton, showed a steady increase in the county's income from diversified farming and a thoroughly satisfactory condition on the farms where the diversified plan has been in effect.

"In 1920 the county shipped 30 cars of livestock to market," Mr. Chandler declared. "In 1925 30 cars, in 1926 56 cars and already in January of this year we have shipped 21 cars. Our production of poultry and eggs has increased from a value of $22,000 in 1924 to $60,000 in 1926. Governor Clifford Walker and a party from the Georgia Association, including F. H. Abbott, secretary, were present at the meeting tonight, coming here from Ashburn.

GLASS OF WATER EACH HOUR RATION OF HEALTH BODY

Chicago, March 7.—(United News.) A glass of water each hour is rationed to the general office employees of the national safety council, whether they're thirsty or not. A further innovation to keep the office workers healthy and efficient is a five-minute recess at 2:55 each afternoon.

A short time ago the council arranged for a bonus to be paid each employee who walked an hour a day. Over 50 per cent accepted the challenge, and in the two months since the scheme has been in effect the company statisticians estimate a 12-day reduction in the time lost for sickness per year.

CONFESSED SLAYER FACES JURY TOADY

—denied that they participated in the death plot as charged in Fitchett's confession, and as executed in bold fashion with a sawed-off shotgun in the fashionable Georgian Terrace hotel last July 29.

"It's all a lie," they protested at Fulton tower, where they were held. "Fitchett is just plain crazy."

Solicitor Boykin also questioned Jack Lance, another local character well-known to police, who is serving a year's sentence on another charge, but if he secured any new evidence in the long-baffling murder mystery—one of the boldest and most sensational crimes ever committed in the south—it was not disclosed. Lance all along has denied he was implicated in the slaying.

The Constitution Monday turned over to the solicitor a complete file of the confession, and Mr. Boykin announced that he was firmly convinced that "if Fitchett did not kill Bert Donaldson as he says he did, he knows all about the plot and was involved in it."

Convicted of Truth.

"I am convinced of the truth of the story that he tells in his confession to The Constitution," Mr. Boykin said. "I am shooting every available man at my command into a probe of the story related by Fitchett, and I'm ready to lay the matter before the grand jury Tuesday."

Removal Arranged.

It was understood that Fitchett is being brought here with the understanding that if he is indicted he will be allowed to remain and face trial. In event he is not indicted, he will be returned to Tennessee to face the bail check count against him here.

Fitchett will be brought here by Sheriff Tom Selman, of Hamilton county, Tenn.; Frank Ship, private detective who was instrumental in securing the confession, and George W. Chamblee, former attorney general of the sixth district of Tennessee and counsel for another man who aided in securing the confession.

The amazing and thrilling confession, giving a detailed account of how Donaldson was trapped and slain by organized criminals who resented his activity against them, all Monday held the spotlight of attention in this city and section. It was the subject of conversation in homes, in offices and in every public place. The Constitution receiving many congratulations on the fact that after long and weary months of exhaustive investigation it had at last brought to light the only definite pointer toward solution of the Donaldson slaying.

Atlanta Plot Seen.

"All along I have worked on the theory that Atlanta gangsters killed Donaldson," Solicitor Boykin said Monday. "I have followed hundreds of trails and questioned hundreds of people, but always the evidence has pointed to the crime at the hands of Atlanta criminals."

"My own investigations substantiate almost every detail of the Fitchett statement, and I am convinced in my mind that Fitchett was involved in the crime as he says he was. I am positive he knows all about the slaying."

"Of course I cannot say whether Fitchett's confession that his hand pulled the trigger on Donaldson is true or not. No one can say that on the evidence we have in hand; but I do not disbelieve the confession, and I'm firing ahead without loss of time in the confidence that a speedy final solution to this baffling mystery is at hand."

While Solicitor Boykin was preparing to present to the grand jury today the confession of Fitchett, his operatives were busy rounding up gamblers and criminals who might have been involved in the murder plot.

Exodus of Crooks.

"I know that one day before Donaldson was slain," the solicitor said, "there was a general exodus of criminals of all kinds from Atlanta in order that they might have a clear alibi in the killing. This convinces me that the plot to get rid of Bert Donaldson was generally known in Atlanta's underworld."

"From the Union depot alone, I have evidence that half a hundred gam-

"Everything I said in my confession was true," Fitchett declared, crying as he formed that his wife had claimed that he was serving a sentence in a Birmingham jail at the time of the murder of the criminal investigator at the Georgian Terrace hotel. "I wasn't in Birmingham at the time, though I had been in jail there prior to the murder."

Fitchett, it was learned here today, was on the same cell block in Fulton tower with Jack Lance, who he charges was a ring leader in the murder plot, when Fitchett was arrested in Atlanta for passing an alleged fictitious check and while he was being held for Chattanooga authorities. He was a cell mate of Mel Gore, condemned murderer, and knew a number of other notorious criminals held in the tower.

Quarrel With Wife.

Fitchett this morning received a letter from his wife, with whom he is said to have quarreled violently. The letter is said to have criticized Fitchett for getting into trouble over the worthless check.

Sheriff Tom Selman, of Hamilton county, Tennessee, Frank Ship, private detective and one of several men instrumental in securing the confession, and George W. Chamblee, attorney representing the parties who secured the confession, will bring Fitchett to Atlanta Tuesday morning early and turn their prisoner over to Solicitor General John A. Boykin in order that the Fulton grand jury may examine him.

Sheriff Selman, Frank Ship and his brother, Joe F. Ship, Hamilton county jailer, are credited with securing Fitchett's admission of the crime. Joe Ship is said to have been the first to begin work on Fitchett with a view to persuading him to admit the crime, and the other two aided the jailer over a period of several weeks before their efforts were crowned with success.

Fitchett today appeared to be relieved over the fact that his confession had been made public by The Constitution, and he seemed to be eager to return to Atlanta.

Glad He Confessed.

The former Atlanta policeman is about 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighing 140 pounds, with blue eyes and medium brown hair. He did not appear to be nervous over his situation, but continued saying that remorse had forced him to issue his statement and that he was "glad it was off his chest."

He is held here for signing a check for $125 on an Atlanta bank with the name of "G. H. Wood." Arrested in Atlanta some time after the Donaldson killing, he was held for several days in the tower and then returned to Chattanooga and turned over to Tennessee authorities to face this charge.

O. P. Smith, Hamilton county policeman, and Ira Bailey, assistant jailer here, have extended many courtesies to newspapermen in interviewing Fitchett, and were warmly commended by the men who secured Fitchett's confession for their aid in checking up on the document.

Coal miners are demanding higher wages. Maybe they could learn something about getting them from the gold-diggers.

Two Britons Awarded Fellowships To Study American News Methods

New York, March 7.—(AP)—The senior fellowship to enable British journalists to visit America has been conferred jointly upon J. Alfred Spender, formerly editor of the Westminster Gazette, and James L. Garvin, editor of The Observer, it was announced here today by the English Speaking Union of the United States.

A committee headed by Henry J. Fisher, originator of the idea of the fellowships, announced that an American newspaper committee with Julian S. Mason of the New York Evening Post as chairman, will act as host to the visitors.

Establishment of a second junior fellowship now is in view, the committee stated. The first is held by Thomas T. K. Cadell, of the Times of London, now spending a year in the United States.

Thomas Cadell, of the London Times, referred to in the above dispatch, spent several months here recently on the staff of The Constitution, which paper was selected by the fellowship authorities as the most representative of southern newspapers on which Mr. Cadell should receive training in American methods.

He was connected at various times with leading newspapers in the various sections of the country and now is on the staff of a prominent northern daily newspaper. Mr. Cadell's writings while he was with The Constitution aroused widespread interest.

this time he smuggled a letter from Detroit to some Atlanta confederate who mailed it to The Constitution and in this letter he boasted of his exploit and laughed at the Atlanta police department for failing to capture him.

This letter was pronounced a fake by certain newspapers, but the following night DuPre was captured in Detroit and copies of the letter were found in his room. They were used as damaging evidence against him and, when appeals were made in his behalf after he had been sentenced to die for his crime, the state supreme court cited the letter to The Constitution as one ground for declining to interfere with action of the trial court.

Fitchett's confession was made exclusively through The Constitution and by this paper was transmitted to Solicitor General John A. Boykin late Tuesday afternoon. The document was in possession of George W. Chamblee, prominent Tennessee attorney, who made a special trip to Atlanta Sunday in order to place the document in the hands of The Constitution.

SUPREME COURT TO DECIDE PLEA OF BOOTLEGGERS

Washington, March 7.—(United News.)—The supreme court has decided to pass on whether bootleggers must file income tax returns.

Lower courts have held that the government cannot compel a person to report illegal profits because of the fifth amendment to the United States constitution which provides that a man shall not be required to be a witness against himself.

The supreme court has granted a petition for review of this case. The United States has tried to inflict additional punishment on convicted bootleggers by invoking the income tax penalties.

Actress Tells Secret

Tells How to Darken Gray Hair With Home-Made Mixture.

Joice Williams, the well-known American actress, recently made the following statement about gray hair, and how to darken it, with a home-made mixture:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will gradually darken gray, streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. In a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Carbo Compound, and 1-4 ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—(adv.)

ing of course that Fitchett's confession is true.

"Jack Lance had secured the confidence of Donaldson," Fitchett said today. "Lance promised Donaldson that if he would come to the room in the Georgian Terrace hotel where the trap was laid, he could get information that would lead to the arrest of Wilson. Donaldson walked into the net and died because he wanted Wilson so badly that he was blinded by the promise of Lance."

Clinging with dogged persistence to his confession of the murder of Donaldson in the face of an alibi claim advanced by his wife, Fitchett tonight expressed readiness to return to Atlanta Tuesday morning and confirm

Giannini To Appear in Concert This Evening at Auditorium

Though Atlanta remains rather quiet socially, a program of cultural events scheduled for this week keeps interest quickened, as well as keeping members of society constantly in touch with each other. Atlantans will assemble this evening in the name of Dusolini Giannini, famous young American prima donna, who will appear in concert at 8:30 o'clock at the city auditorium. The concert will be the closing number of the civic concert series sponsored by the Atlanta Music club.

In addition to an unusual and classic beauty, Miss Giannini possesses a voice of widest range, adaptable to every class of music. Her program has been wisely selected to give full opportunity for the display of this quality, to which she has added the vibrancy of a glowing personality. The young artist will be accompanied by Mollie Bernstein, of Savannah, who is sufficiently well known in Atlanta to attract an audience on her own account.

Introducing their charming young daughter, Mrs. Raymond Hastings, a recent bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hastings will entertain at an elaborate reception this evening at their home in Decatur. Two hundred and fifty members of the younger set of society have been invited to meet Mrs. Hastings, who is a notable addition to social circles.

Another lovely bride who will be honored today is Mrs. William D. Ellis III, who will be central figure at the bridge-tee to be given by Mrs. Humphrey Wagar at her home on Peachtree street.

The officers of the Young Matrons' circle for Tallulah Falls school, always alert for the good of the noble venture which they sponsor, will meet at luncheon today at the Atlanta Athletic club as the guests of their president, Mrs. Lawrence Willett. They will make and discuss plans for the mammoth midnight revue which will be presented Friday evening at the city auditorium for the benefit of the school.

Mrs. Spencer Stone To Honor Miss Smith.

Mrs. Spencer H. Stone will give a tea Tuesday afternoon at her home on Westminster drive, in compliment to Miss Charlotte Gage Smith, director of art in the Atlanta schools.

Among those invited are Miss Mary Postell, Mrs. Henry Lawrence, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Sophie Clark, Miss Myra Graves, Miss Kate Har- oldson, Miss Ethel Massengale, Miss Ruth Weigand, Miss Jessie Coleman, Miss Hattie Rainwater, Miss Elsie Boylston, Miss May Walker and Mrs. William G. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Boehm Honor Miss Boehm, Mr. Mohr.

Honoring their daughter, Miss Marion Boehm, whose engagement was announced Sunday to Samuel Mohr, of Montgomery, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Julian Boehm entertained at a reception Sunday evening at their home on Myrtle street.

Assisting the hosts in the entertainment of their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schoen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Michael, of Athens, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, and among the special guests were Mr. Mohr's two brothers, Jake Mohr and Mike Mohr, of Mobile, Ala.

Miss Katherine Spitz and Miss Hazel Stamp were at the punch bowl which was beautifully decorated with richly tinted fruits.

Mrs. Boehm wore a most becoming gown of flame-colored chiffon and a corsage of sweet peas.

Miss Boehm was lovely in a gown

Miss Rosenbaum Weds Moe Goldman At Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Marie Helene Rosenbaum to Moe Goldman was solemnized Sunday at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rosenbaum, on Fourteenth street. Rabbi David Marx performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The home was decorated with palms, ferns and interspersed with baskets holding Easter lilies and spring flowers.

The bride's only attendant was her mother, Mrs. Ralph Rosenbaum, who was matron of honor.

Miss Helene Rosenbaum, Miss Natalie Edison and Miss Betty Schwartzman, little nieces of the bride, were the flower girls and Master Charles Edison was ring bearer.

Irving Goldman, of Miami, Fla., brother of the groom, was best man. The bride entered with her father, Ralph Rosenbaum, who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in her costume of beige georgette, fashioned of two-piece effect with lace waist and skirt of tiny plaids. Her corsage was sweetheart roses and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony the bridal party and families were entertained at a dinner. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Rosenbaum entertained at an elegant reception and about 300 friends of the charming young couple called between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Goldman left for Cuba for a wedding journey of two weeks and upon their return they will make their home at the St. George apartments on Peachtree street.

Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Faine To Be Joint Hostesses.

A very delightful affair will be the bridge-tee at which Mrs. Cyril C. Chandler and Mrs. Sybil E. Faine will be joint hostesses at Mrs. Faine's apartment in Building 27, at Ft. McPherson, Thursday, March 10.

St. Patrick's colors and favors will be carried out in the decorations, and this will be one of the most interesting events of the week in the army circles. Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Faine will have 32 guests.

Mrs. Estabrook Is Bridge Hostess.

Mrs. Gaylor Estabrook was hostess Tuesday at a lovely bridge-luncheon at her home, 1108 Peachtree, the occasion complimenting members of the De-Lite Bridge club.

After luncheon was served, bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon. Members of the De-Lite club are Mrs. Estabrook, Mrs. Anne Brantley, Misses Ethel Snell, Nellie West, Grace Donohoy, Ida McKinley, Rose Gramling and Henrietta Weber.

Kle Club To Hold Wednesday Meeting.

The Kle club will hold a business meeting Wednesday morning, March 9, at 11 o'clock, in the Elks' club. Nomination of officers for the coming year will take place and all members are urged to attend this meeting.

Oratory School Plans Speakers' Program.

The Atlanta School of Oratory and Expression, 402 Wesley Memorial Church building, will have a speakers' program of much variety and interest Tuesday night, March 8, at 8:30 o'clock. Business men and women will make short speeches on live topics, after which Dr. Watson will conduct a period of parliamentary practice. The public is cordially invited.

O. D. D. Fraternity To Give Formal Dance.

The members of the O. D. D. fraternity of the Henry Grady High school will give its formal dance at the Druid Hills Golf club on the evening of May 27.

Mrs. Dodson To Entertain Woman's Bible Class.

Mrs. J. Glenn Dodson will entertain the members of the Woman's Bible class of the Second Baptist church at her home at 1632 Ponce de Leon avenue Tuesday afternoon, March 8, at 3 o'clock.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. William D. Ellis III will be the formal dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Inman will entertain this evening at their home on Peachtree street.

Mrs. Samuel C. Harrison, Jr., will entertain at a bride-tee at her home in Fort McPherson, complimenting her mother, Mrs. Samuel C. Harrison.

Members of the Army Golf club will entertain at an informal luncheon at Druid Hills Golf club.

The Atlanta Music club will present Dusolini Giannini, young American prima donna, in concert at 8:30 o'clock at the city auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hastings will entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hastings at a formal reception at their home, 308 Clairmont avenue, in Decatur.

Mrs. J. Glenn Dodson will entertain the members of the Woman's Bible class of the Second Baptist church at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Lawrence Willett, president of the Young Matrons' circle for Tallulah Falls school, will act as hostess today at 1 o'clock at the Atlanta Athletic club, to the officers of the circle and a group of workers interested in the mammoth Midnight Revue, which will be presented Friday evening, at the city auditorium for the benefit of Tallulah school.

Mrs. Spencer R. Stone will give a tea at her home on Westminster drive, in compliment to Miss Charlotte Gage Smith, director of art in the Atlanta schools.

This evening the Circulo Espanol will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bland, 1092 St. Augustine place, N. E.

Mrs. G. C. Spence will entertain at a bridge-tee, in honor of Mrs. Rufus Le Grand, of Wilmington, N. C., at her home near Roswell, Ga.

Oglethorpe Students Write Meritorious One-Act Play

By Bessie S. Stafford.

To Miss Idolene Lewman, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewman, a student at Oglethorpe university during her debutante year, goes the honor of being the only girl whose play, "The Greatest of These," has been selected as one of the five clearest and most meritorious entered the playwrighting contest by Lewis Haase, prominent Atlanta dramatic director of the organization for the past three years, who reviews the compositions and envisions the results thereof.

Others Selected. "The Mild-Mannered Man With Two Wild, Wild Wives," written by Fred Stewart, president of the Oglethorpe university players, in collaboration with Charles Willis; "Dawn," by Edward Miles in collaboration with Charles Willis; "Such Gall," by Harvey Smith and "The Temporary Vamp," by Earl Blackwell, complete the list, which will have a try-out at Erlanger theater Tuesday afternoon.

Before Mr. Haase, who is designated a double cast to present this worthy material at today's tryout. The final selection of the three best plays submitted by these ambitious college students will be made by the elimination process, which will mean more worth, while laurels for the winners. Active rehearsals begin Monday, March 21, and the plays will be presented at Erlanger's Friday evening, April 1.

The creditable manuscripts were submitted by Oglethorpe students in the playwrighting contest of 1927 bearing no name, being designated by numerals.

Scene of Play. The scene of Miss Lewman's interesting playlet is laid in Algiers, where she lived six months, crossing the Sahara by caravan. During the play's progress, a real sandstorm occurs, and a French colony serves as a background for this colorful, dramatic production, which ends in tragedy of the most nonchalant description.

Miss Bernice Brown, young and attractive dean of Radcliff college, at Cambridge, Mass., arrives in Atlanta Wednesday to visit Mrs. Samuel N. Evans, on East Fourteenth street, and will be honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Evans that day, at which former and prospective Radcliff students will be invited.

Miss Brown speaks to the students at North Avenue Presbyterian school and Girls' High school Wednesday morning.

To be one of the youngest deans in the country and the youngest alumna to serve her college in that capacity is a distinction well worth mentioning, and Miss Brown has that honor. In 1923, only seven years after she took her A. B. degree from Radcliff, Miss Brown was appointed to the deanship there, a choice which at once proved to be as wise as it is pleasing.

Since the dean's office is the center of all the personnel work of the college, in her hands are all problems connected with the girls themselves. She also acts as chairman of several committees closely correlated with student welfare, among which are those on scholarship aid and the halls of residence. It is difficult to believe that so quiet and simple a young woman can hold in her hands such a great number of strings, and so wisely control the destinies of such a large group of young people. Her power of decision and her ability to keep a clear head are two of her outstanding characteristics which fit her so admirably for a position as executive and broad as that of a dean.

Just previous to her appointment at Radcliff, Miss Brown was organized in Boston a new and interesting experiment—the training school for public service, of which she was director for two years. This school, which was begun under the auspices of two women's civic organizations in that city, had as its aim, "to fit women to take a high place in the civic service eligible lists and to enter upon their work well equipped." As director she not only organized and recruited students, but gave instructions in general government as well.

In her student days Miss Brown distinguished herself by twice winning a prize given by the National Municipal league for an essay on municipal government and by winning a prize given by the Carnegie foundation for international peace fellowship. Between her A. B. degree, which she took in 1916, and her M. A. in 1918 she spent a time at the Yale law school; and after receiving her doctorate in international law in 1920 she was appointed fellow under the commission for relief in Belgium, which meant the continuation of her studies at the University of Brussels. Her interest in her chosen field of international problems keeps active with that in her work, and she serves on several well-known boards and committees of wide fame.

SQUIBB'S MILK OF MAGNESIA
THE STANDARD OF QUALITY

Starring Dulcie Jayne

By VIRGINIA TRACY.

INSTALLMENT XXXVIII.

Dulcie Springs a Surprise.

After this fashion they proceeded through the lobby, Dulcie's coat flying behind her and the concentrated eagerness of her little face still pushing ahead. Cornelia, scarcely able to keep up with the relentless trot of her small convoy, found herself towed between bookstand and flower stand, not so unlike what they had been in her time, between women in diamonds and cloth-of-gold, women in rough skirts and sports hats, young actors who looked like princes, and old financiers who looked like chancellors, into a gilded elevator which deposited them in a ruby colored corridor, fifteen stories in the air, and stepped in the silence of thick, glowing rugs rather than of thick, crimson carpets, but otherwise practically the same corridor down which a certain princess royal used to walk between her mother and Marc Antony-Romeo more than thirty years ago. A hotel! How it closed around Cornelia like a home!

They paused at a door. A hotel! How it flung open by Dulcie Jayne, who paused upon the threshold with a violence of self-restraint not entirely innocent of histrionism.

Across the room rose the Cye-precious maid, also restrained and violent, but sulky, terrorized. "You can get tight out!" said Dulcie Jayne. The Cye-precious maid got right out, Dulcie giving way before her, not entering the room till she had left it. She then drew in Cornelia and shut the door.

Cornelia was aware, as in a dream's bright fever, of sitting in a suite all white and turquoise, listening to Dulcie's brisk, brusque little voice demanding someone on the telephone. From the walls, from the desk, from the dressing table, from beneath the little bedside lamp, looked forth the imposing features of Daniel K. Leland. Past the undrawn blind of a window opening upon the park, the black rage of the storm was pierced and jeweled by the lights of Columbus circle and of Eighth avenue in the very act of becoming Central Park West; here the electric signs of the theaters, the blazing sky signs, were aureoled in shining mist and driven rain, like mere bright, old candles in the wind, yet circled, stood still, flashed in and out. The most bewildering in swift movement caught Cornelia's eye.

And then—

Now

FINEST AND FINEST.

DULCIE JAYNE—

as Dulcie said through the telephone.

"It's Miss Jane, Otto, yes. Well, just some oysters and chicken salad and coffee for now, Otto. Yes, for three, and right away, quick as you can get it here. But say, Otto, listen! Have a real supper for us after the theater, the best you can fix up—well, all the principal things I leave to you, but plenty of chestnuts and truffles and a hot cream sauce with cheese on something, and be strong on the desert, Otto!—Operator, the flower stand!"

Cornelia drew a long, luxurious breath. Thirty years seemed slipping away; as she was saying to her mother that this, now, was what her mother was accustomed to she became aware that Dulcie was scornfully rejecting some suggestion. "Roses? what I want, white and pink. All very well," she addressed Cornelia.

SPOTS IN NEW ORLEANS.
New Orleans, March 7.—(P)—Spot cotton closed steady, 11 points up; sales, 4,208; low middling, 12.46; middling, 14.36; good middling, 15.31; receipts, 6,585; stock, 661,555.

New York, March 7.—(P)—The cotton market was quiet but steady today in response to the firm showing of Liverpool; encouraging reports from the cotton goods market and the apparent absence of selling pressure from the south. May contracts advanced to 14.43 or 20 points above Saturday's closing quotations and closed at 14.51, the general market closing steady at net advances of 11 to 17 points.

The market opened steady 4 to 9 points higher in response to the relative firmness of Liverpool. There was some southern selling, but it was readily absorbed, the market working higher during midday on trade buying and covering, while there also seemed to be some rebuying by traders who had sold out long contracts on the advances of last week.

Reports of rains in the southwest, which would suggest further delays in farm work, may have contributed, but the factors mainly discussed were the showing of Liverpool, reports of a continued active business in the domestic markets for cotton goods, and the absence of southern selling in sufficient volume to suggest any general weakening of the spot situation.

The advance extended to 14.28 for March, 14.55 for July and 14.72 for October contracts or about 18 to 20 points net higher. At these prices there was a little more realizing which was reflected in closing reactions of 4 to 8 points from the best. Trading was only in moderate volume during the day with the rather reactionary sentiment noted here toward the end of last week still in evidence, although selling was checked by reports of a continued steady spot situation in the south.

Private cables claimed the advance in Liverpool was due to trade calling and good spot demand, unsettled weather and French buying, and said home demand for cotton cloths was improving and that there had been a fair turnover in yarns made of Egyptian cotton.

Exports for the day were 54,531 making 7,861,243 so far this season. Port receipts 47,012. United States port stocks, 2,712,845.

NEW HIGH RECORDED AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, March 7.—(P)—The cotton market moved into new highs today under the influence of a favorable Liverpool cable, heavy spot sales, a good spot demand, unsettled weather and heavy exports. The close was 11 to 13 points higher than that of Saturday.

First sales showed gains of 5 to 9 points on the strength of cables revealing 2 to 4 penny points better than due in Liverpool and spot sales there of 12,000 bales.

Continued gains during the morning brought March up to 14.29, May to 14.42 and July to 14.55, 17 to 18 points above the previous close.

Realization and hedge selling cut

REACTION STILL DOMINATES CURB

New York, March 7.—(P)—Reactionary tendencies again predominated in today's curb market, but the volume of trading was unusually small. With little public interest apparent, floor traders were inclined to take their cue from the action of the "big board" where further liquidation was in evidence.

A further downward revision of crude oil prices brought fresh liquidation into the oil shares, Standard Oil of Indiana fell back a point to a new low level for the year at 60.3-4, whereas Vacuum closed more than a point higher. Heavy trading again developed in Cities Service common, but the fluctuations were orderly and the stock closed slightly more than a point higher on the day at 49.7-8.

Heaviness of Pullman (new stock), which sold down more than 2 points on publication of an unsatisfactory January earnings statement, attracted the most attention in the industrial group. Elsewhere the heaviness of the Pullman stock was offset by the advance of North American, Rans, Kader, Richmond Radiator preferred and Warner Pictures B. Auburn Auto broke 3-1-2 points on a few sales.

Public utilities were inclined to drift lower, but with the exception of a point drop in Empire Power the losses were held to fractions.

New York, March 7.—(AP)—With trading at a low ebb and prices generally steady, interests in the bond market today centered in the announcement of the new government financing. Although the low rate at which the new issue is to be offered presages a continuance of easy money conditions, the announcement had little immediate effect upon the listed market. Plans for the refunding of the secondary Liberty loan, of which slightly more than $3,000,000,000 is outstanding, through the issuance of five-year 3-1/2 per cent notes to holders of the bonds, were announced tonight by the treasury department.

The principal activity naturally centered in existing government bonds, some of which were in heavy demand. New high record prices were attained by the first and fourth Liberty bonds.

Profit taking on a moderate scale developed in a number of domestic issues, including some of the recent favorites among railway lines with convertible features.

Several foreign obligations were subjected to selling pressure, including the $10,000,000 loan to the city of Rome to be floated in New York as part of a $50,000,000 issue.

MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

King Richard I.

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING,
NOTED HISTORIAN

NEWS CAME THAT THE SALADIN WITH HIS SARACEN TROOPS WAS MARCHING TO THE DEFENSE OF JERUSALEM. TO RECOVER THE HOLY SEPULCHRE AT JERUSALEM WAS THE MAIN OBJECT OF THE CRUSADERS. AFTER LEAVING SUFFICIENT TROOPS FOR THE DEFENSE OF ACRE, RICHARD HASTED TO THE MARCH AGAINST THE SALADIN. HIS FORCES WERE DIVIDED INTO FIVE DIVISIONS. THERE WERE TWO NOTED BODIES OF KNIGHTS, THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR AND THE KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN. THE FORMER LED THE ARMY AND THE LATTER PROTECTED THE REAR. AUGUST 22, 1191, THE JOURNEY BEGAN. RICHARD HEADED FOR THE PORT OF JAFFA, A POINT OPPOSITE TO JERUSALEM. IN ORDER TO PROTECT HIS COMMUNICATIONS BY SEA, GREAT POMP AND CEREMONY ATTENDED THE ARRANGEMENTS. TRUMPETERS PRECEDED THE COLUMNS WITH STIMULATING MUSIC—FLAGS AND BANNERS FLOATED IN THE AIR. AT NIGHT, WHEN CAMP WAS MADE, AT A GIVEN SIGNAL THE SOLDIERS ALL KNEELED, WHILE HERALDS PROCLAIMED THREE TIMES, "GOD SAVE THE HOLY SEPULCHRE," AND THE SOLDIERS RESPONDED, "AMEN."

THE ARMY MOVED VERY SLOWLY, BEING LOADED WITH ARMS AND THE NECESSARY EQUIPMENT. THE TROOPS OF THE SALADIN HARASSED THE MARCH, CUTTING OFF STRAGGLERS AND KEEPING THE ARMY CONTINUALLY ON THE ALERT. THIS DIMINISHED THE SPEED OF THE SOLDIERS AND INCREASED THEIR FATIGUE. CRAFTILY THE SALADIN DECLINED A GENERAL ENGAGEMENT, WHICH RICHARD WAS VERY ANXIOUS TO BRING ON.

AT LAST THE CRUSADERS REACHED JAFFA. BY THIS TIME THE SALADIN WAS READY FOR BATTLE AND STAGED A FURIOUS ASSAULT. THE SARACENS WERE WITH GREAT DIFFICULTY DRIVEN BACK. AND THEN, AT THE CRITICAL MOMENT, RICHARD MOUNTED ON HIS FIERY CHARGER AND WAVYING HIS GREAT BATTLE AXE, COUNTER CHARGED.
